UPDATE

26th February 2020

Swiss Market Index SMI – daily chart (reprinted from my Chart Outlook of 10.2.2020) – updated on the next page->

My comment from 10.2.2020: The SMI has extended the uptrend and added one more short-term rally to register another minor higher-high. Still, the pattern from early December appears as Expanding WEDGE and as such, could be a trend-ending formation. Wave 5 could be topping here, within the major resistance range 11000 to 11150. Supports are at 10880, 10770 and 10590.

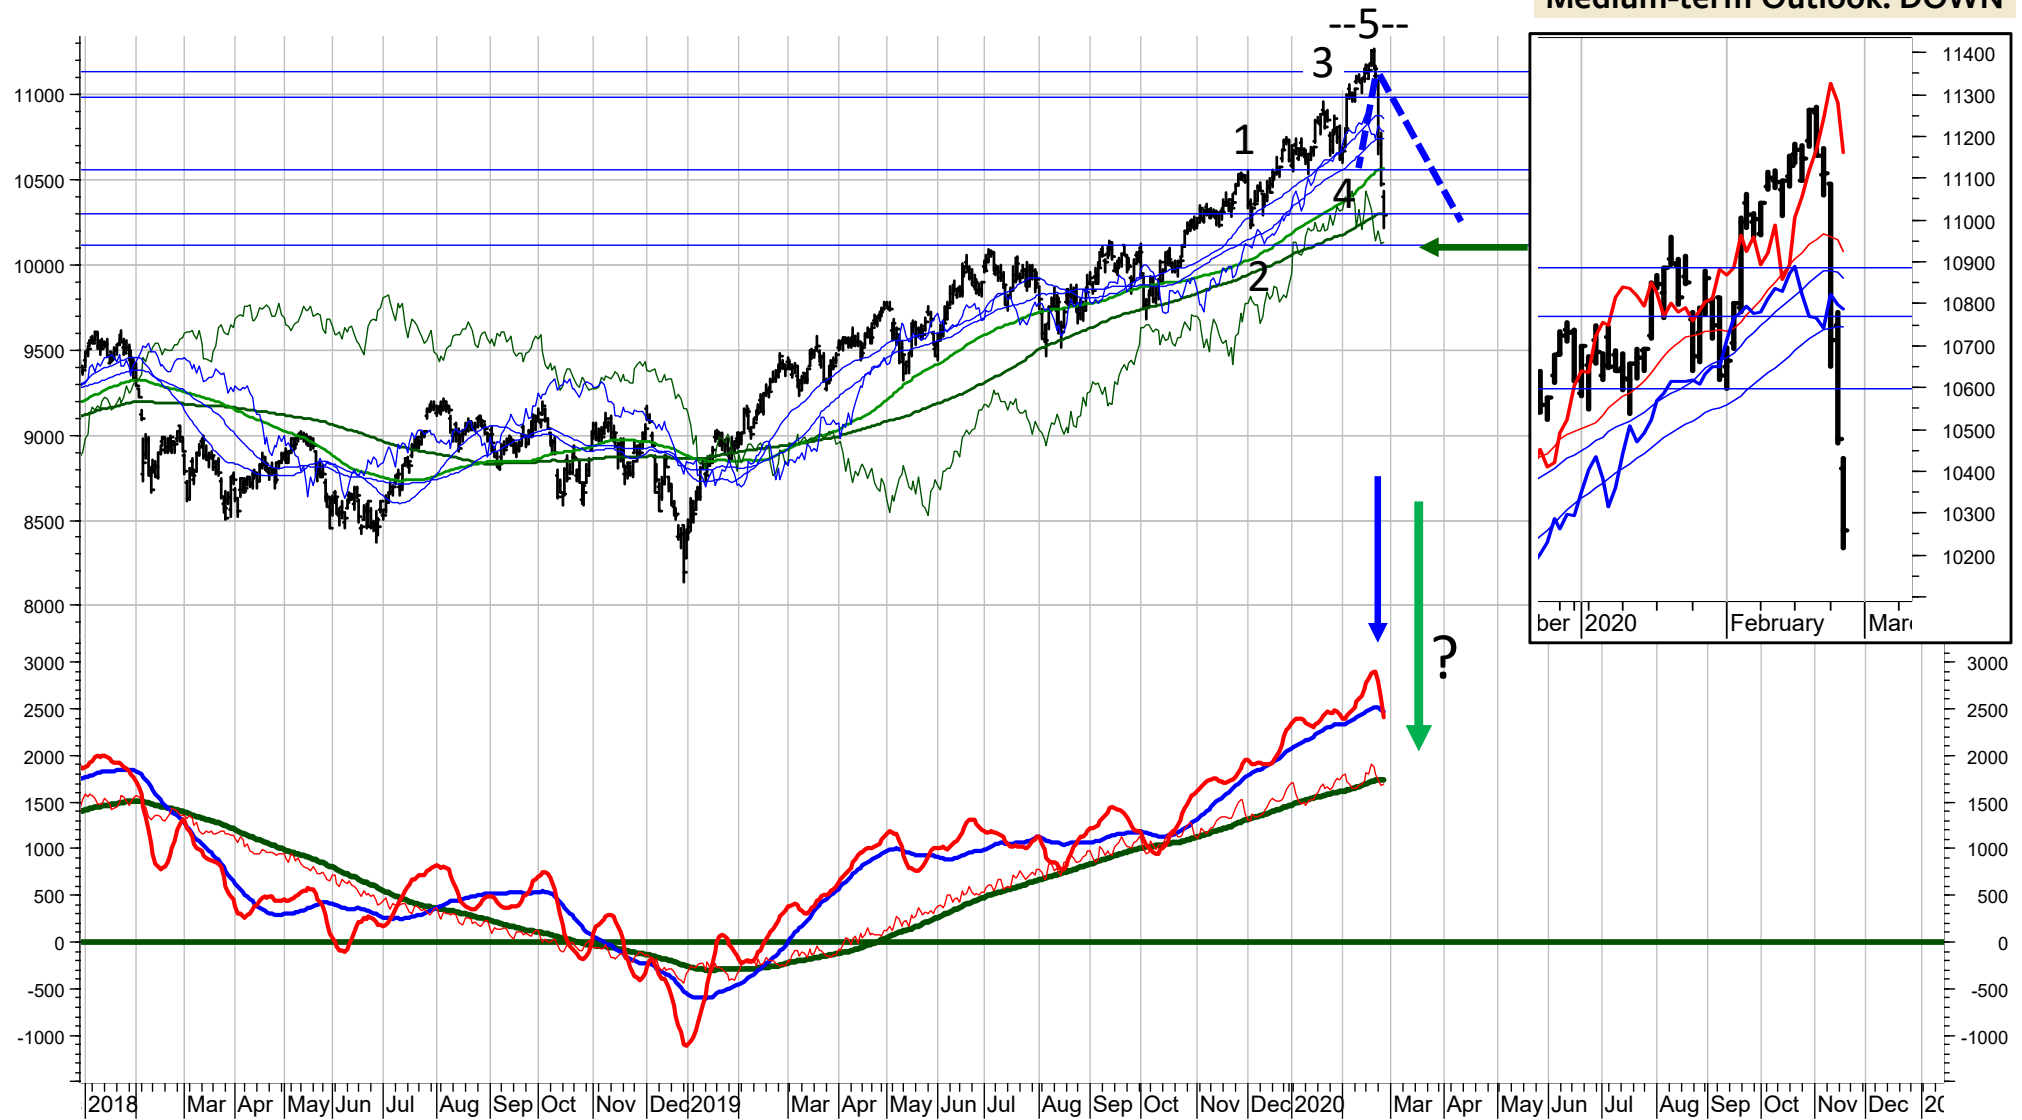

Swiss Market Index SMI – daily chart

My Trend and Momentum Model is short-term down and medium-term down since the break of 10700.

The long-term model is close to moving to DOWN. It will do so if the Index breaks the long-term momentum reversal at 10,000.

S & P 500 Index – daily chart (reprinted from my Chart Outlook of 10.2.2020) – updated on the next page->

My comment from 10.2.2020: The S&P 500 Index has fully retraced the short-term correction, which it traced out in January. It even registered a minor higher-high. Thus, it held firm above the support at 3220 / 3170, a break of which would have triggered a medium-term downgrade to DOWN. Still, the higher-high does not guarantee that a downgrade will not be signaled in the next short-term correction. This is because the present rally is likely to form Wave 5 within the uptrend from early October. A top to this Wave 5 could be registered at around 3400. Clearly, it now would take a break of 3265 and 3210 to signal a new medium-term downtrend and downgrade to DOWN.

My Trend and Momentum Model is short-term down and medium-term down since the break of 3200. The long-term model is still positive. BUT, it is likely to turn to DOWN if the Index breaks the 144-day moving average at 3100 and if it breaks the long-term momentum reversal at 3000 / 2950.

Eurostoxx 50 Index – daily chart (reprinted from my Chart Outlook of 10.2.2020) – updated on the next page->

My comment from 10.2.2020: Wave 5 of the uptrend from August still appears to be forming. The correction in January was Wave iv, one degree lower, or in other words, Wave iv to the uptrend not from August but from October. It could extend the uptrend to the long-term resistance range between 3900 and 4000.

Last week's medium-term downgrade needs a decline in the Index below 3700 and 3630 to be confirmed.

Long-term Outlook: FLAT
Medium-term Outlook: DOWN

Eurostoxx 50 Index – daily chart

My Trend and Momentum Model is short-term down and medium-term down. Also the long-term model is down because the Index broke below the 89-day average at 3740 and the 144-day moving Average at 3620. My Long-term Outlook will turn DOWN if also the long-term momentum reversal is broken at 3460, a test which is impending.

Nestlé – 240-minute chart

Nestlé has just completed an inverse FLAT a-b-c, which appears to be Wave B of a larger correction, which has major supports at 101.50 or 98. Clearly, a break of 98 would trigger a major downtrend and sell signal.

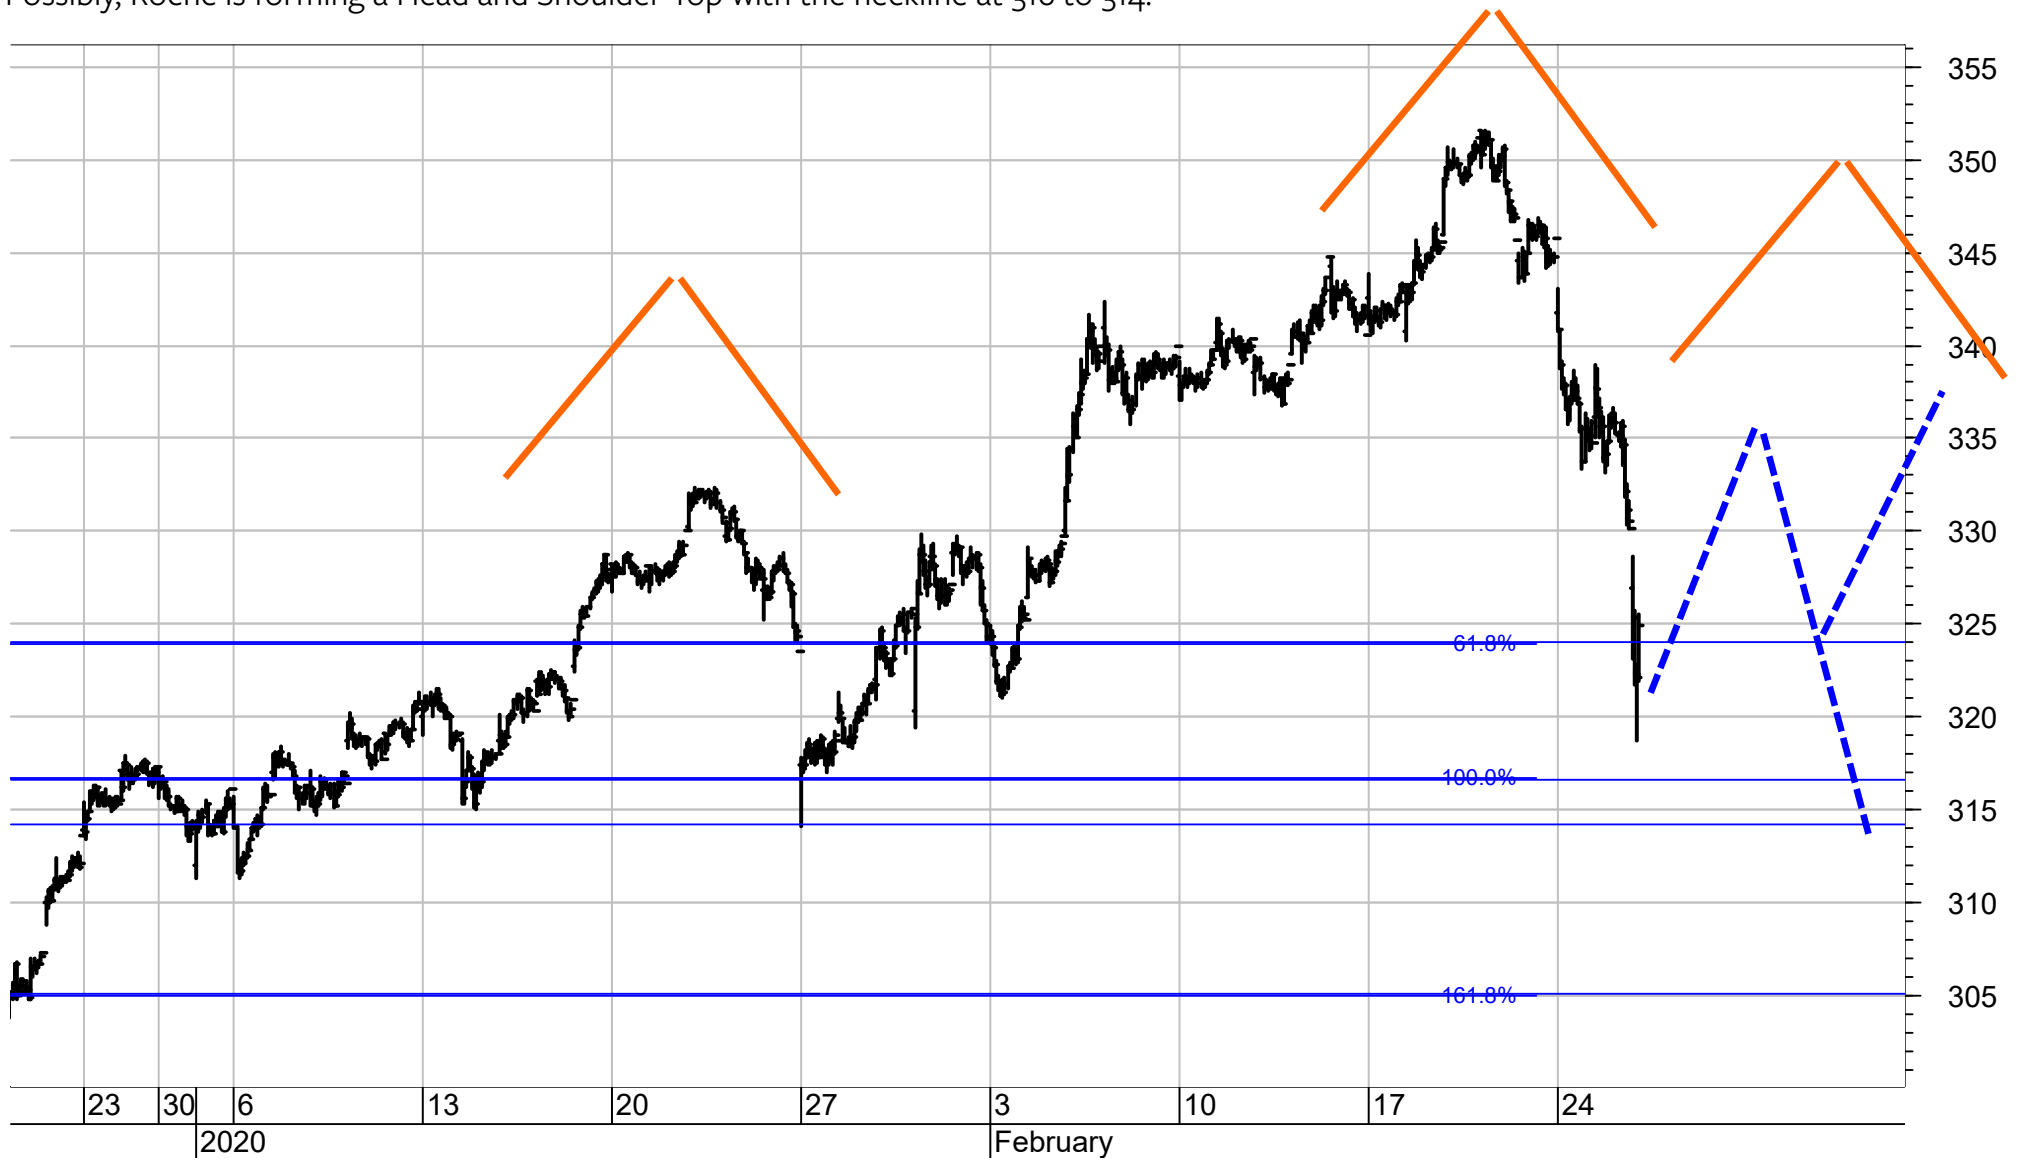

Roche – 30-minute chart

The structure of the present decline indicates that a major support is at 316.

This structure is a five-wave pattern, which implies that even if a rebound is seen from here, that the low of 318.80 is likely to be broken.

Lower support is at 305.

Possibly, Roche is forming a Head and Shoulder Top with the neckline at 316 to 314.
