MSCI World (in US dollars)

The MSCI World Index could be upgraded to MEDIUM-TERM FLAT if 3115 can be broken. This is because the Index will have retraced more than 61.80% of its September decline. It has already recovered above the 89-day and 55-day moving averages and the September decline can better be labeled as a three-wave structure. If 3115 can be cleared, then the World Index is likely to recover to the resistance range between 3155 to 3175. The rally from 6.10.2021 at 2978.07 could be Wave b of a developing horizontal TRIANGLE a-b-c-d-e. It could also form a FLAT or it could already resume the major uptrend. My assessment of the medium-term and long-term outlook will depend on the test of 3115 or 3175. Meanwhile, the risk is that the Index fails to break 3115 and that a decline below 2990 to 2975 would complete a Head and Shoulder Top (above right) and signal a long-term downtrend and long-term downgrade of my Outlook to DOWN.

Global-40 Stock Market Indices - Trend and Momentum Model

The Total Score for the 40 stock market indices rose from 47% to 68% and thus, turned POSITIVE.

The Short-term Model remains POSITIVE with. The Score rose from 63% to 90%.

The Medium-term Model shifted to POSITIVE. The Score rose from 38% to 64%.

The Long-term Model shifted to POSITIVE. The Score rose from 51% to 63%.

The positive shift in the model readings is mainly based on the short-term recovery. The indices rose above the moving averages over the past few days and a renewed downturn could easily shift the model readings to negative again. I give the positive readings one more week to be confirmed.

Distribution of the global 1325 stocks on the Long-term, Medium-term and Short-term Momentum Indicators

The 1325 stocks are the sum of the 500 stock constituents of the S&P 500 Index plus the 600 stock constituents of the STOXX 600 Index plus the 225 stock constituents of the NIKKEI 225 Index.

S&P 500 MEDIUM TERM

STOXX 600 MEDIUM TERM

NIKKEI 225 MEDIUM TERM

LONG-TERM (monthly data): The Long-term Momentum Cycle (upper right) remains NEGATIVE because 62% (last week 69%) of the 1325 constituent stocks display a DECLINING long-term momentum indicator (D+T=69%). This compares to 38% of the 1325 stocks, which display a RISING long-term momentum indicator (U+A=31%).

MEDIUM-TERM (weekly data): The Medium-term Momentum Cycle remains NEGATIVE. The Model counts 46% (last week 37%) of the 1325 stocks in the RISING quadrants (U+A) and 54% in the DECLINING quadrants D+T. The US medium-term cycle (top left) remains slightly NEGATIVE (D+T=56%), the European cycle (middle left) remains NEGATIVE (D+T=64%) and the Japanese cycle remains POSITIVE (U+A=78%).

SHORT-TERM (daily data): The global short-term momentum cycle (bottom right) remains POSITIVE. The short-term screening of the 1325 stocks shows that 24% are in the declining quadrants (D+T) and 76% are in the rising quadrants (U+A).

With 76% of the 1325 stocks in the rising short-term cycle, it could be strong enough to signal a medium-term shift to positive. For a bullish turn in the medium-term cycle, more than 30% of the 1325 stocks must cluster in the UP quadrant (presently 21%).

Position of the LONG-TERM Momentum Indicators of the 1325 Index constituent stocks (1325=100%)

Position of the MEDIUM-TERM Momentum Indicators of the 1325 Index constituent stocks (1325=100%)

Position of the SHORT-TERM Momentum Indicators of the 1325 Index constituent stocks (1325=100%)

US Cycle Model

The stock market is in a short-term rebound, which remains below the long-term momentum reversal, presently at 4773. This means that the S&P 500 Index would have to rise by 6.8% to signal an extension of the long-term uptrend. A break of the support at 4310 would have to be seen for the long-term downtrend to be signaled. The present constellation of a declining long-term momentum in the stock market and the still rising long-term momentum in the 10-year yield and in the commodity index positions the US Cycle in the phase of INFLATION.

US Medium-term Cycle Model – Economic growth re-accelerating - Stocks have a problem with Inflation

The US 10-year T-Note is trading at the resistance around 1.6%. It is positioned above the 2 moving averages and the medium-term momentum indicator is rising. The Rating remains UP.

The Weekly Economic Cycle Research Index is positioned above the 2 moving averages and the medium-term momentum indicator is rising. The Rating remains UP.

The Weekly Initial Jobless Claims rose (scale inverted) from 362k to 293k. The Medium-term Momentum Indicator is rising. It follows the uptrend in the 10-year Yield and the ECRI. The Rating is UP.

The S&P 500 Index (bottom right) is positioned marginally above the 2 moving averages but the Medium-term Momentum Indicator is declining (with the Reversal at 4570). This means the Index must rise by another 2.2% to signal a new medium-term uptrend. The present medium-term momentum decline means that the stock market has a problem with Inflation.

There are quite a few scenarios to be derived from the September correction and the present short-term rally. The S&P 500 Index could rise to 4620 and extend the Wedge which originated in May (see Chart Outlook of 4.10.2021, page 12) to be followed by a sharp selloff. Also, the pattern from the high in September could be a FLAT ((a)-(b)-(c), marked in red) in which the SPX rises to 4530 / 4550 where it enters another correction. A rise above 4490 would signal a (temporary?) upgrade to medium-term FLAT. In the meantime, the big levels to watch are the resistances 4620 to 4700 (derived from the momentum reversals) and the Fibonacci support levels at 4300 and 4200.

The Outlook for the MSCI USA relative to the MSCI AC World and relative to the MSCI Equally Weighted World remains MEDIUM-TERM NEUTRAL and LONG-TERM OVERWEIGHT USA.

Value Line Arithmetic Index

The Value Line Arithmetic Index is testing the lower end of the resistance range between 9800 and 10050. For now, it remains in the neutral consolidation with the support range between 9350 and 9050. The Long-term Outlook and the Medium-term Outlook remain FLAT.

Nasdaq 100 Index

The Nasdaq 100 Index must rise above 15200 to 15300 (+1%) to reduce the risk of a major top formation to be signaled with a break of the support at 14300 (-5.6%).

A rise above 15300 would justify a medium-term upgrade to FLAT.

Russel 2000 Index

Similar to the Value Line Index (previous page), the Russel 2000 Index is in a neutral trading range between 2140 to 2040 and 2330 to 2360.

My Long-term and Medium-term Outlook remain FLAT.

Swiss Market Index SMI

The rebound from 6.10.2021 at 11381.74 is close to the resistance range between 12050 and 12150. A break of this range would justify a medium-term upgrade to FLAT.

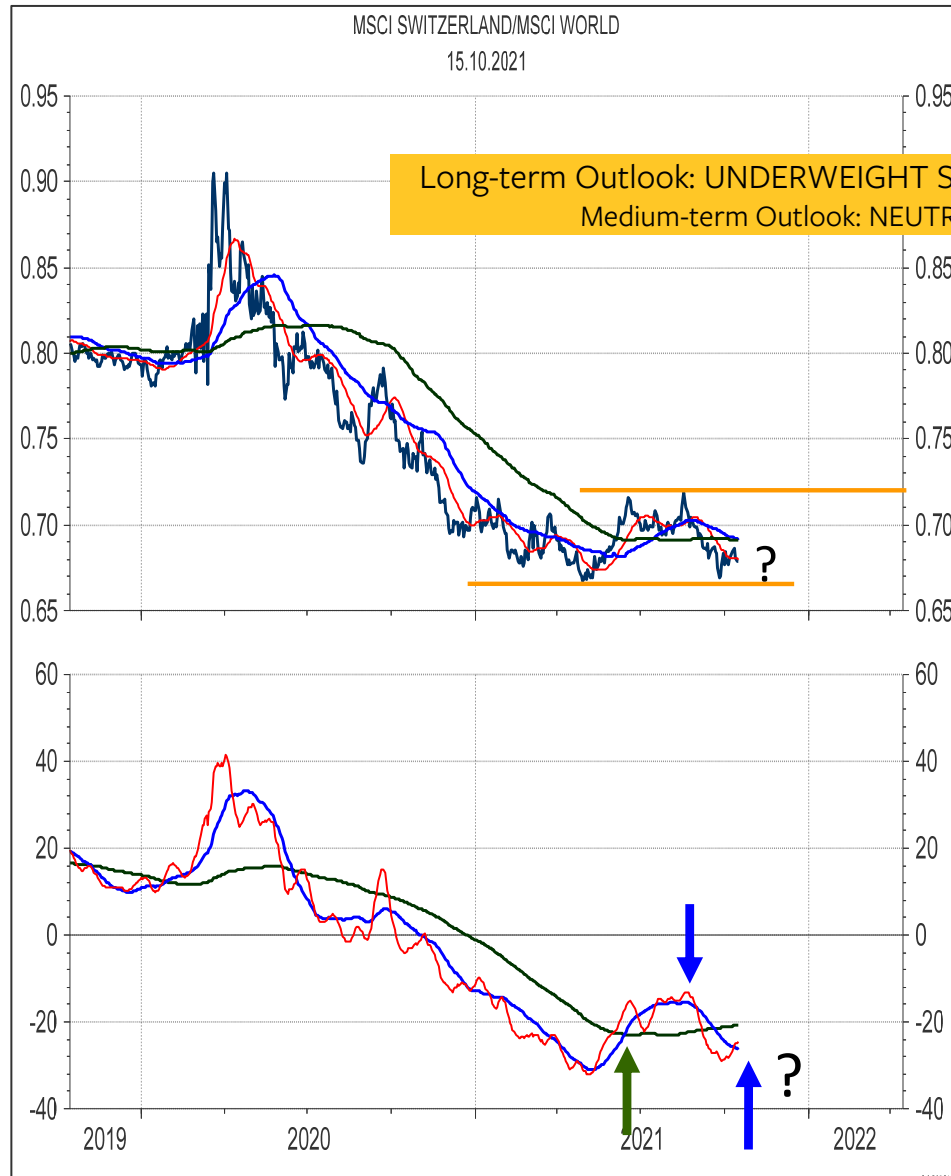

The risk is that the present rally tops below the 89-day and 55-day moving averages and that a long-term downtrend would be signaled if the support range is broken between 11500 and 12000. Such a break would turn the long-term outlook DOWN.

MSCI Switzerland relative to the MSCI World Index and MSCI Equally Weighted World Index

The momentum constellation speaks in favor of a major upturn in the MSCI Switzerland relative to the MSCI World Index (left) and relative to the MSCI Equally Weighted World Index (right). However, my Long-term Outlook remains LONG-TERM UNDERWEIGHT SWITZERLAND (overweight World) unless the relative chart breaks above the relative resistances at 0.72 (left chart) and 0.48 (chart at right). My Medium-term Outlook would turn DOWN if the lows from May 2021 are broken.

The Medium-term Outlook could be upgraded to FLAT if the resistance range between 15600 to 15750 is broken.

MSCI Germany in Swiss franc relative to the MSCI Switzerland

The MSCI Germany, measured in Swiss francs and relative to the MSCI Switzerland, is testing the low from 23.8.2021 at 0.736. The German underperformance from April 2021 would resume if this low is broken. For now, Swiss franc based equity investors remain out of the MSCI Germany (or underweight) medium-term and long-term.

MSCI Japan relative to the MSCI World Index

The short-term decline (underperformance of Japan) is questioning my scenario of a new long-term uptrend (outperformance of Japan). Possibly, the underperformance from 27.3.2020 could be resuming.

My Long-term Outlook remains NEUTRAL. My Medium-term Outlook remains OVERWEIGHT Japan.

MSCI Japan in Swiss franc relative to the MSCI Switzerland

The present short-term decline (underperformance of Japan) is testing the 55-day moving average. A break of 6.20 would signal a renewed downgrade to medium-term NEUTRAL. Swiss franc based equity investors remain long-term NEUTRAL and medium-term OVERWEIGHT.

The downtrend (EM underperformance) from 17.2.2021 to 20.8.2021 (25% EM underperformance relative to MSCI Switzerland) has given way to a medium-term rebound. It must rise above the 144-day moving average to signal a long-term upgrade to NEUTRAL. For now, Swiss franc-based equity investors remain OUT of the Emerging Markets (or UNDERWEIGHT).

10-year Bond Yield Model, comprised of 37 countries - Trend and Momentum Model

The Total Score for the 10-year Yield in 37 countries fell from 97% to 92% and thus remains POSITIVE.

The Short-term Model is POSITIVE with a Score of 62% (last week 95%).

The Medium-term Model is POSITIVE with a Score of 99% (last week 100%).

The Long-term Model remains POSITIVE with a Score at 96% (unchanged).

The deterioration in the Global Model reflects the unfolding short-term correction, which began after the short-term uptrend had reached an extremely overbought level. Because the medium-term momentum reversal is about 20% below the present yield level, the short-term weakness is unlikely to reverse the unfolding medium-term and long-term uptrends. Only if the medium-term model turns red, will it have bearish implications on the investment strategy.

For now, the medium-term and long-term outlook remains positive, i.e. indicating higher yields into early 2022.

USA - 10-year T-Note Yield

The US 10-year T-Note Yield is trading below the resistance range between 1.62% to 1.69% and above the support range between 1.49% to 1.42%. A break above the resistances would signal further yield strength towards 2%. For now, my Long-term and Medium-term Outlook remain UP.

SWISS Conf Bonds (7-10-year) Bond price (top left and right) und Total Return (bottom left)

The Bond Price and the Total Return continue to decline. The Bond Price is breaking below the low from 18.5.2021 and is breaking the long-term support at 120. The break in the secular uptrend is the reason why the bottom in the long-term momentum indicator has failed.

Bloomberg Commodity Index

The Bloomberg Commodity Index has reached the lower end of the resistance range between 105.50 and 106.50. The next resistances are at 108.50 to 110. Given the present rate of ascent and the pattern of the rally from the low in August, the risk of a sharp reversal remains high. Supports are at 103.50 and 100.50.

Bloomberg Commodity Sector Indices

Light Crude Oil

On the logarithmic chart of Crude Oil (left) the uptrend from the year 1900 fits into a nice uptrend channel. Clearly, the low of -40.32 on 30.4.2020 was the deflationary low of the decline from 31.7.2008 at 147.27. On the log chart I took the close of April 2020 at 18.84 to be able to draw the log scale. The rise from April 2020 could be the resumption of the secular uptrend with new all-time highs to be expected, or, it could be Wave B of a larger Triangle. Clearly, the levels at 75 and 85 mark an important resistance range from which a major correction can be expected. My second best scenario calls for a the Triangle to start at either 115 / 120 or at the high from 2008 at 147.27.

Brent Crude Oil continuous (December) Future

Brent Crude Oil would have to decline below the supports at 83.30, 81.50 and 79.50 to signal a major top. Based on the uptrend channel from September, Brent Crude must rise above 88 to signal an acceleration of the uptrend and to avoid such a major top.

Silver, Platinum and Palladium

My Trend and Momentum Model has upgraded Platinum to long-term FLAT and Palladium to medium-term FLAT. Silver remains unchanged at long-term DOWN and medium-term FLAT. I am watching Platinum if it can re-instate the former long-term uptrend.

Global-US DOLLAR MODEL – US Dollar against 35 different currencies

The Total Score for the US dollar against 35 currencies fell from 67% to 53% and thus turned NEUTRAL.

The Short-term Model is NEGATIVE with a Score of 25% (last week 51%).

The Medium-term Model is NEUTRAL with a Score of 47% (last week 60%).

The Long-term Model remains POSITIVE with a Score at 75% (last week 85%).

With the recent US dollar weakness, the Short-term Model has turned NEGATIVE. This has put pressure on the Medium-term Model. But, the Long-term Model remains POSITIVE. I am watching the medium-term readings, if they turn negative under the pressure of the short-term decline.

Swiss Franc per US DOLLAR

My Trend and Momentum Model rates the US dollar long-term UP, medium-term UP and short-term DOWN. But, it would take a Dollar rise above the Fibonacci resistance at 0.9380 to signal a bullish break from the forming Triangle. For now, my Outlook remains FLAT medium- and long term.

SCORE	CURRENCY	RIC	PRICE	LT	MT	ST
67%	US DOLLAR/Swiss Franc	CHF=	0.9226	+	+	d-

Japanese yen per US DOLLAR

The US dollar broke above the high from March 2020 and is likely to test the next resistances at 114.80 or 115.60.

Chinese yuan per US DOLLAR

The consolidation in the US dollar is likely to be followed by more weakness, so that the US dollar falls to another lower-low.

Brazilian real per US DOLLAR

The US dollar remains in its horizontal Triangle. Based on the long-term momentum indicator, which has declined from overbought to the neutral Zero line, the break could still be expected to the upside.

Mexican peso per US DOLLAR

The US dollar remains in its Triangle. The risk is increasing that the US dollar will break the Triangle to the downside.

Swedish krona per US DOLLAR

The US dollar is at risk of being downgraded medium term if the 144-day moving average is broken. A downgrade to DOWN would be signaled if the lower support of the price channel is broken at around 8.30.

Swedish krona per EURO

The Euro fell to a lower low and thus, the Long-term Outlook is downgraded to DOWN. The Medium-term Outlook remains DOWN.

US dollar per BRITISH POUND

The British pound could be upgraded to FLAT if the 144-day moving average is broken.

US dollar per AUSTRALIAN DOLLAR

The Australian dollar has entered a medium-term rebound within its long-term downtrend. It must rise above the 144-day average for a long-term upgrade.

US dollar per EURO

The Euro entered a medium-term consolidation, still within the long-term downtrend. I would BUY the Euro if the medium-term momentum indicator signals a new uptrend, which is when it breaks above 1.1690.

Swiss franc per EURO

The Euro is bouncing off the major support at 1.07 to 1.0650. The Short-term and Medium-term Momentum Indicators are bottoming. I would BUY the Euro if the resistances at 1.0750 and 1.0770 are broken. Short-term support is 1.0690 and 1.0665.

US dollar per BITCOIN (Chart and forecast at left are reprinted from BCO of 11.10.2021)

The chart at left is reprinted from my Chart Outlook of 11.10.2021, when I projected a rise in the Bitcoin to the resistance range between 63k and 66k. A correction could take over here and form Wave c of the projected Triangle. Based on the magnitude of Wave b, the major support is now positioned at 42k. Short-term resistances are at 64.2k, 65.9k and 67.5k. Supports are 56k, 54.5k and 52k. It would take a rise above 6k to negate the present Triangle and to signal the immediate resumption of the long-term uptrend.

US dollar per ETHEREUM

The uptrend has reached the resistance at 4000 to 4100. A correction could take over here and form Wave c of the larger Triangle at left or the smaller Triangle at right. It would take a rise above 3930 and 4080 to 4150 to signal a rise towards 5000.
