ABB – 240-Minute chart

The chart of ABB marked three points, based on which the key resistance levels have to be calculated. These points are the low in December 2018, the high in April 2019 and the low in on 31.5.2019. The respective Fibonacci resistance levels are 20.30, 20.55, 20.90, 21.20 and 21.50. The most important ones are 20.30 and 21.50. A break of 21.50 would signal 23.60. Traders and investors hold from 18.75 and 19.25. Add to the position if 20.30 is cleared. Sell signals will be triggered if 18.70 and 17.90 are broken.

ALCON – 30-Minute chart

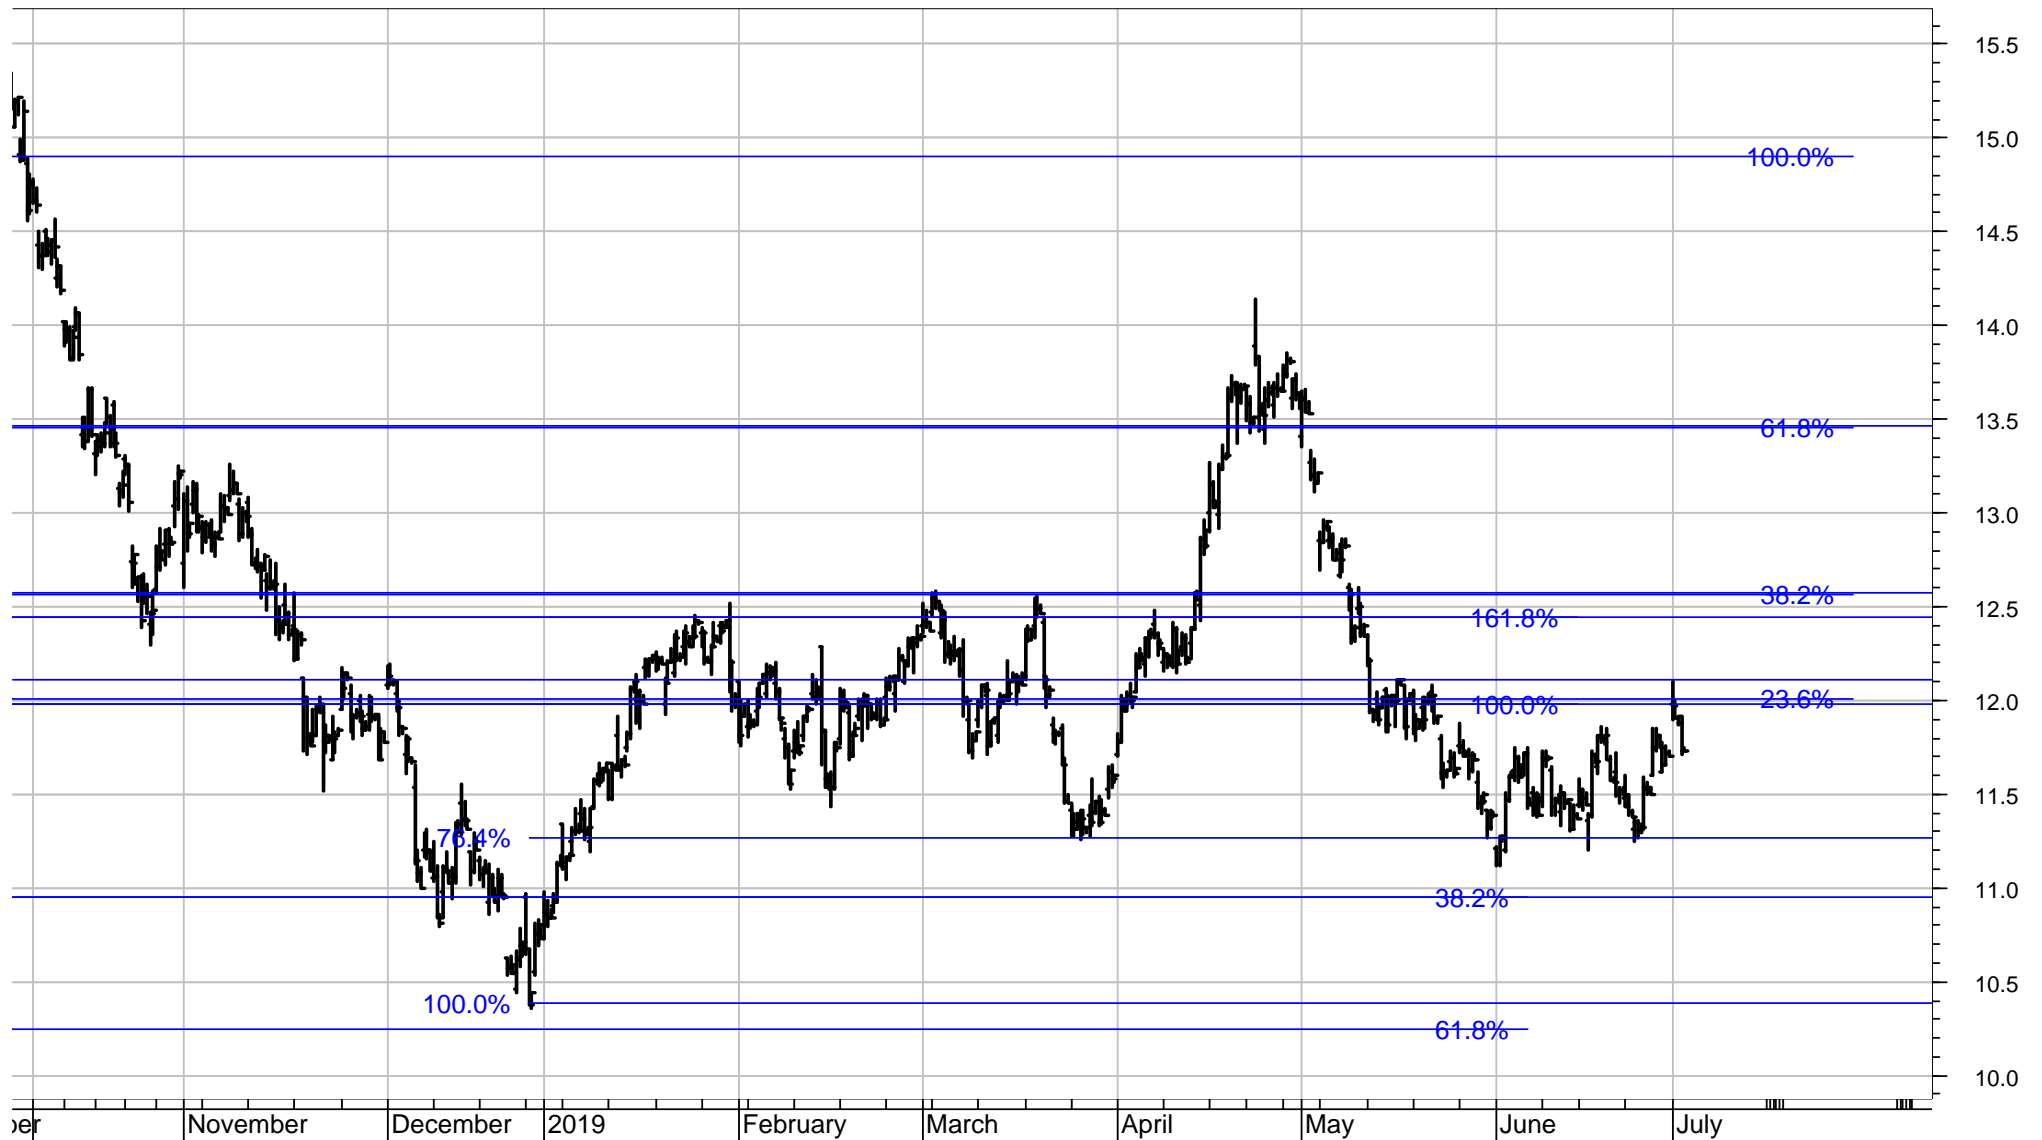

Alcon managed to hold the support at 57.40 and turned up. This is the rise, which I had expected to unfold from the mid-June low.

Add to the position if 61.30 and 62.10 is broken. A break of 63.50 will signal 67.50.
Sell only if 57 is broken.

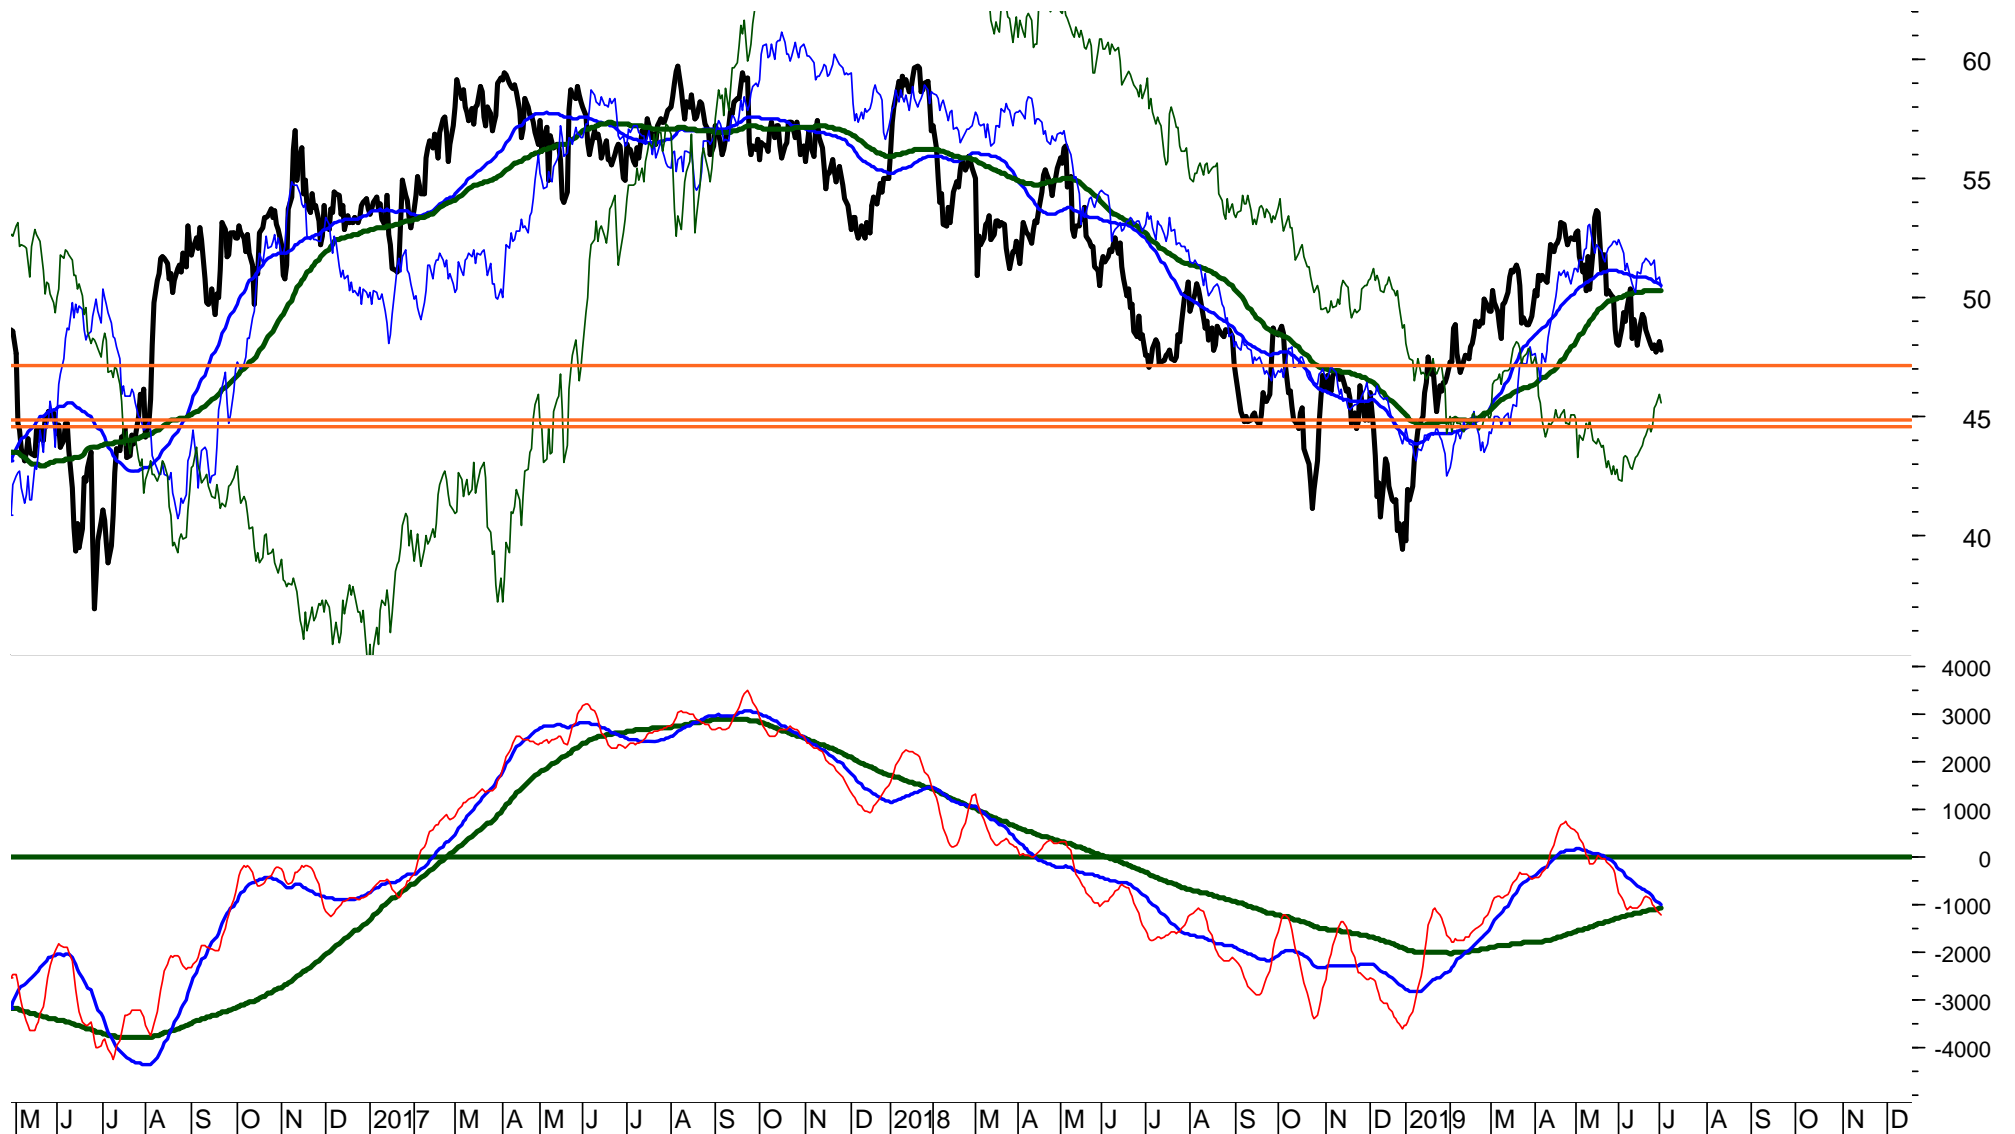

CS GROUP – 240-Minute chart

CSG has remained below resistance at 12 / 12.10 during the entire month of June. Unless it breaks above 12.60 and 13.50 it will remain at risk of resuming the downtrend below 10.90 or 10.30, possibly falling to the secular support at 8.90.

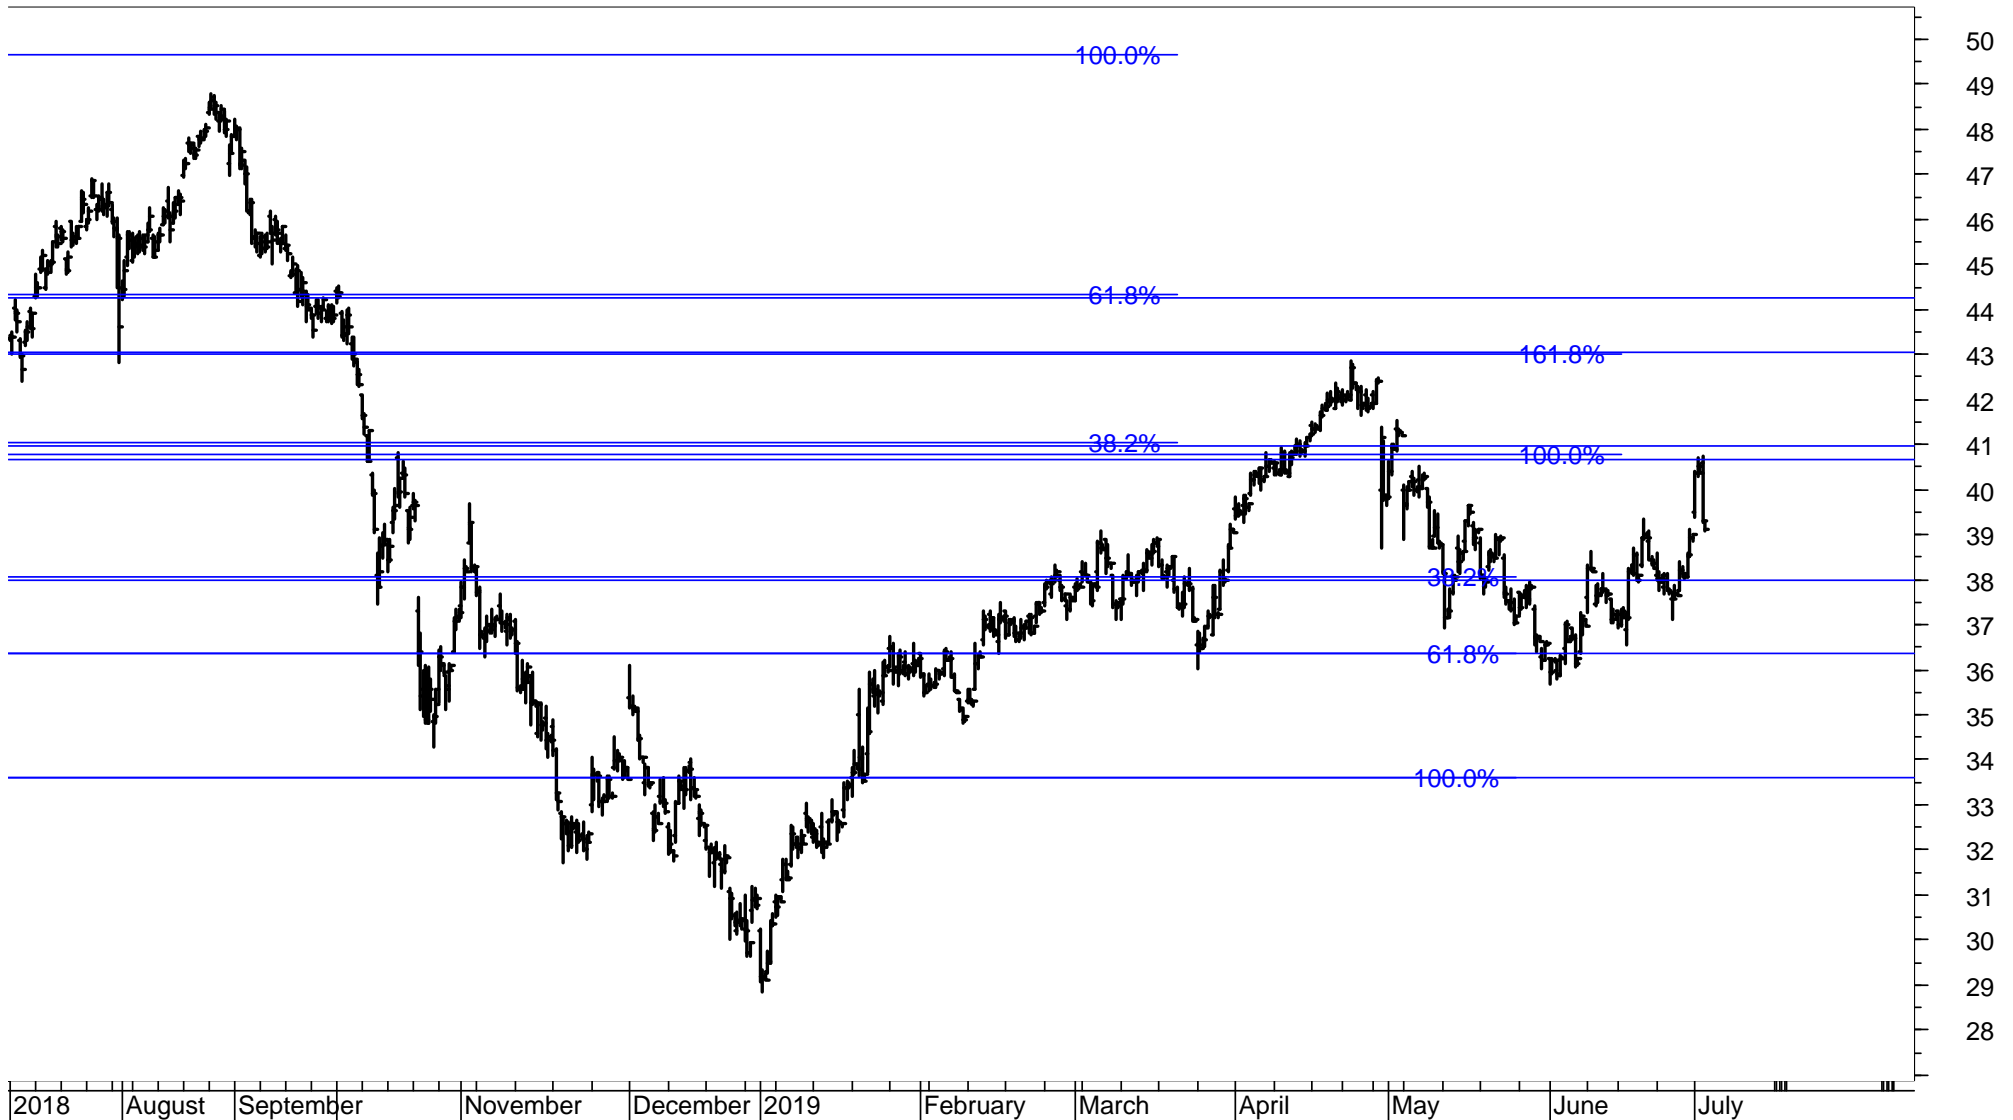

LAFARGEHOLCIM

LHN remains in the medium-term downtrend. A break of 47 will activate the support at 45 / 44. A break of 44 will signal the resumption of the downtrend to or below the low from December. I would sell the position if 46.50 and 44 is broken.

LOGITECH – 240-Minute chart

Logitech appears to be capped by the major resistance at 41.
It would have to break 41 to signal 43, 44.50 or 50.
Next, it could well test the supports at 38, 36.30 or 33.50.

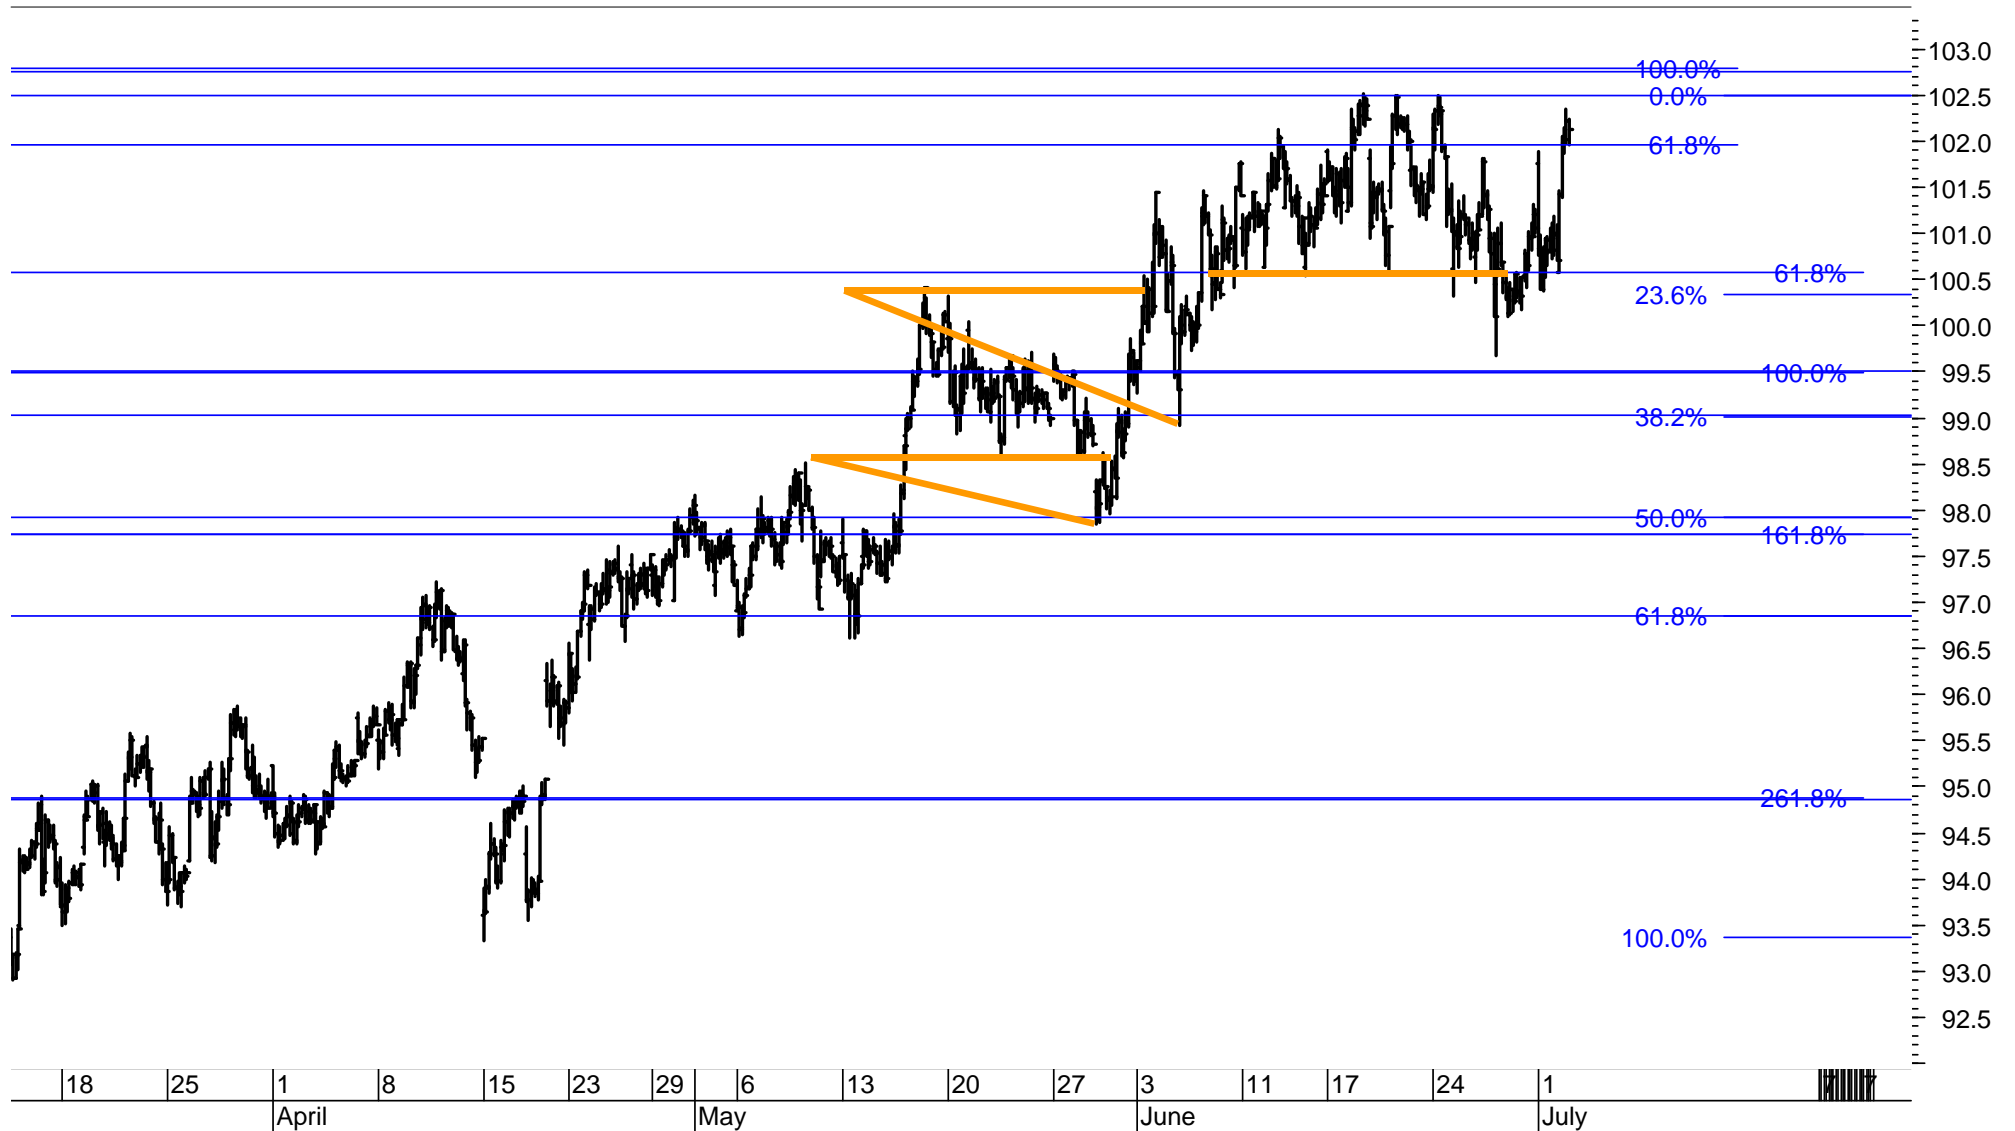

NESTLE

The uptrend has lost strength since the low in April. This is evident by the overlapping of the higher-highs compared to the correction-lows.

Resistance is at 102.50 / 102.80. Supports are 99.50 / 99 and 98 / 97.70.

Clearly, a break of 99.50 / 99 will signal the start of a more sizable correction.

NOVARTIS

Novartis is close to long-term resistance at 92.50 / 94.

A break of this range will activate the next long-term resistance at 99 to 102.

A clear break of the high from 2015 would signal a new upside potential to 113 / 115.

ORASCOM

Orascom is forming a Horizontal Triangle.

It is presently testing resistance at 16, a break of which will signal 17, a break of which will signal 19 or 22.50.

Supports are 14.40, 13.40 and 11.90.

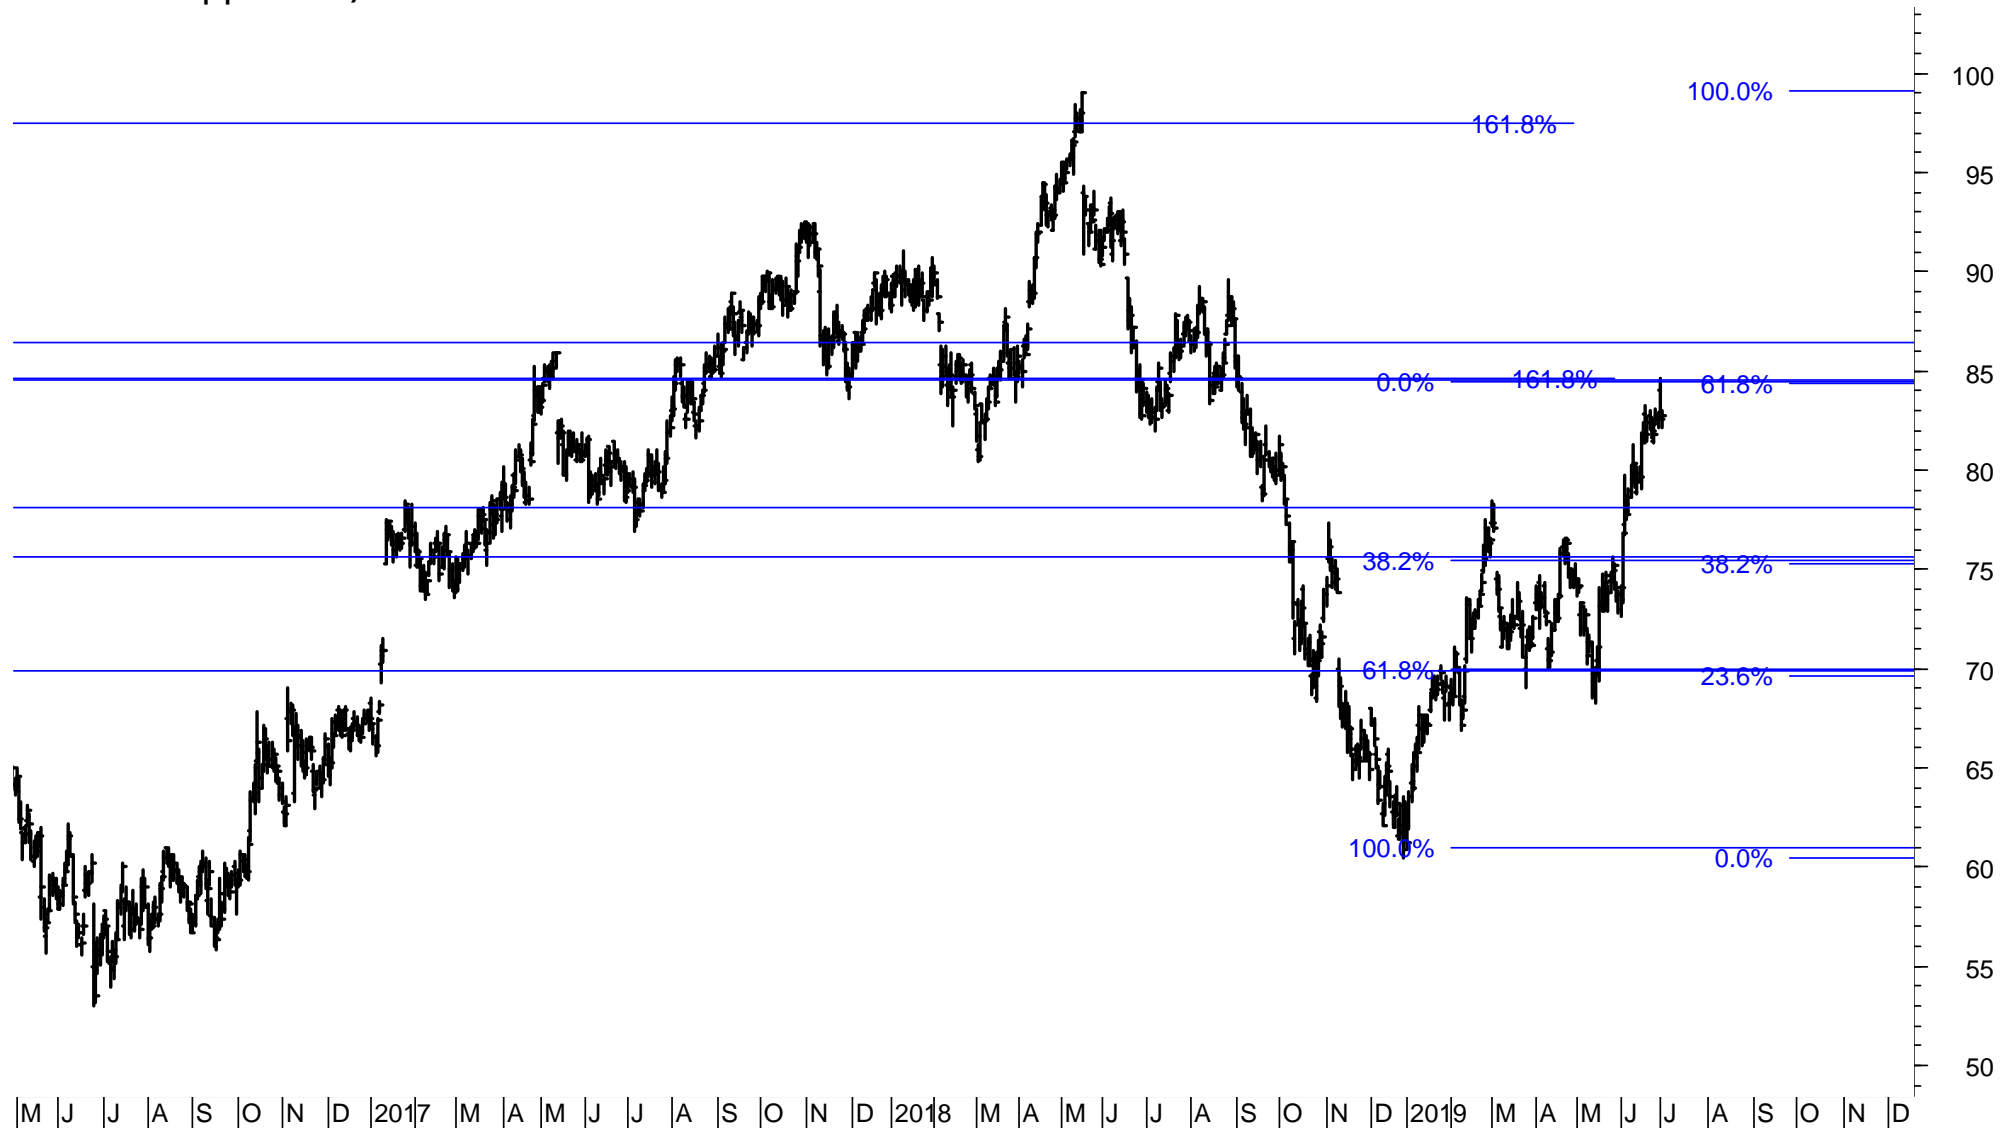

RICHEMONT

Richemont could signal a new upside potential to 100 or above, but only if 85 / 87 can be broken.

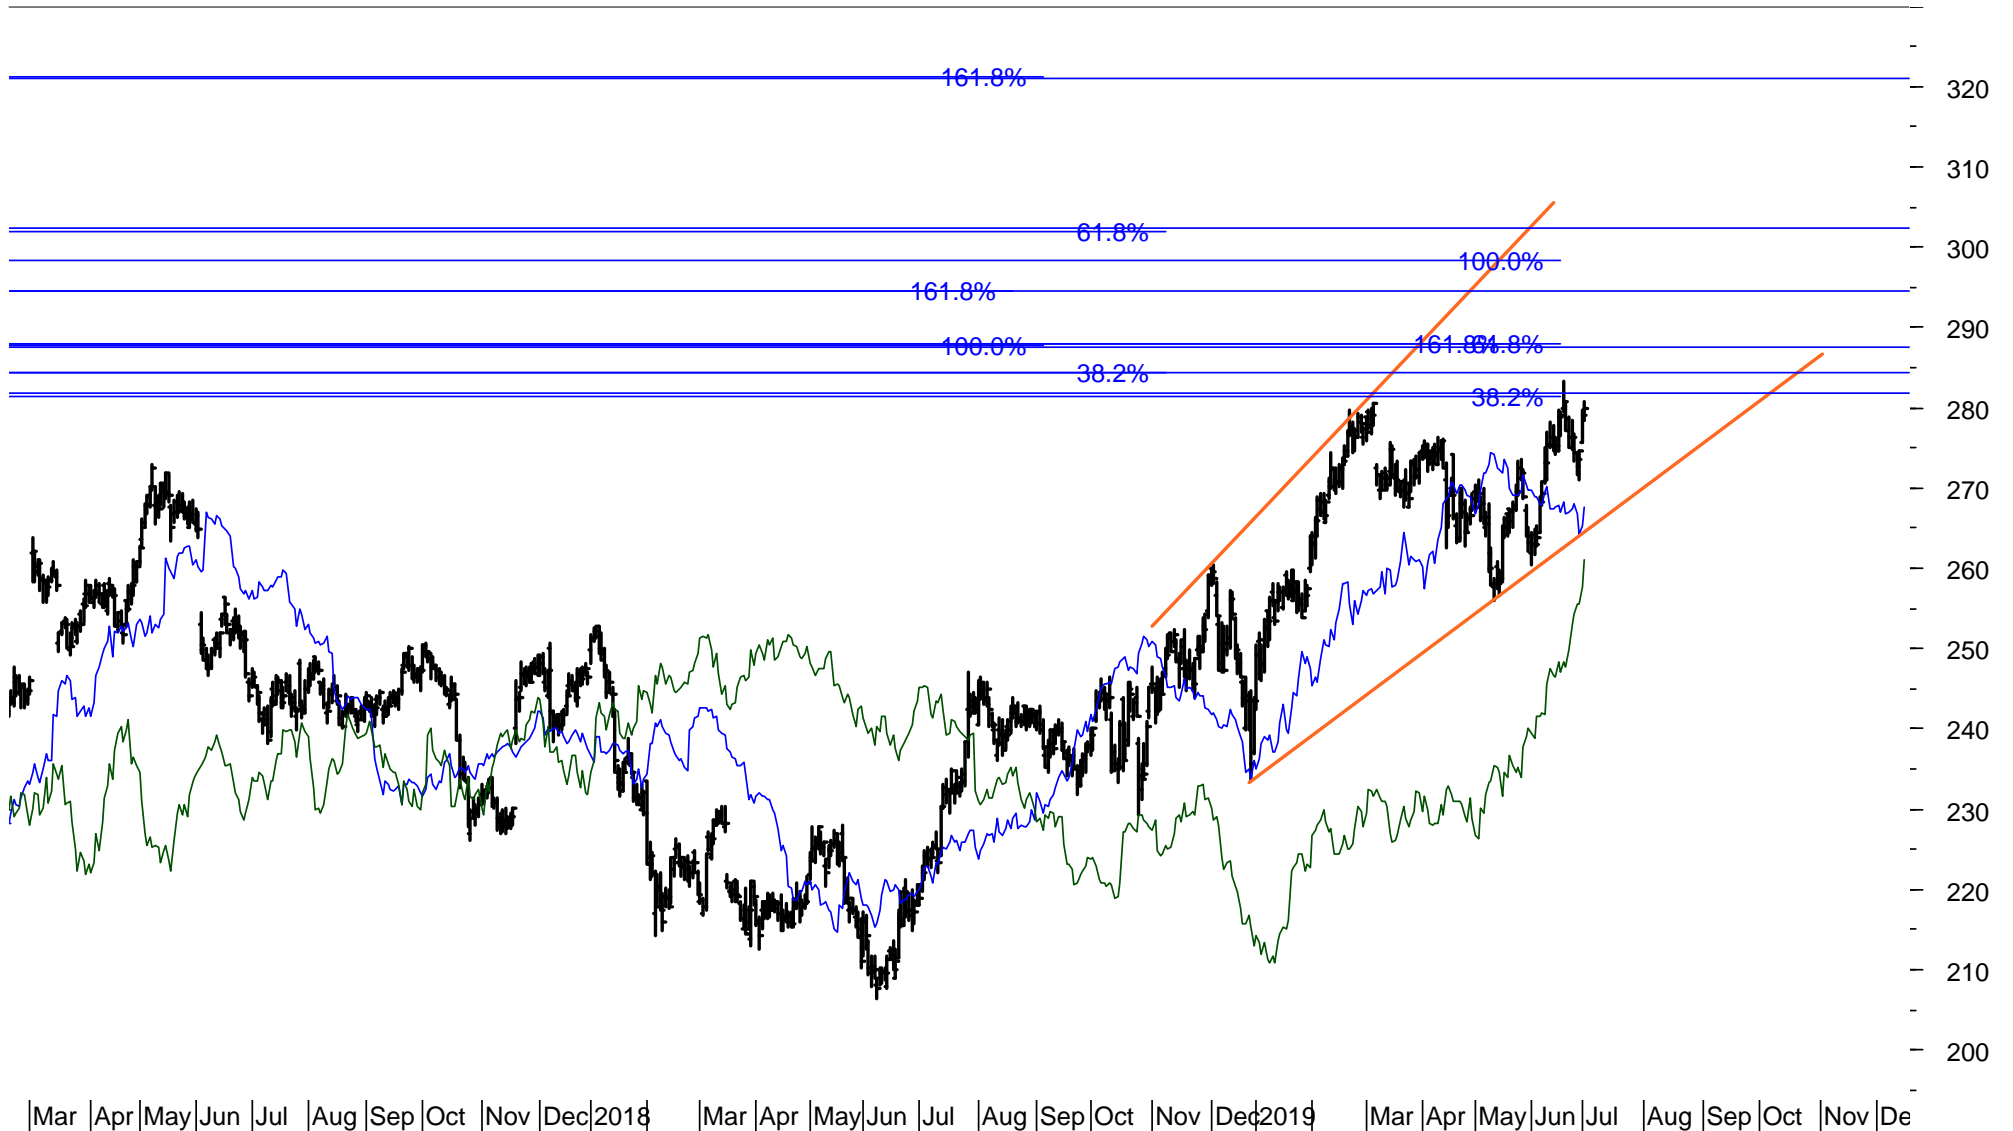

Supports are 75 and 70.

Given that a failure to break 87 is quite likely to have occurred, I would sell the position and take the profit of 9%, or, sell if the support at 78 is broken.

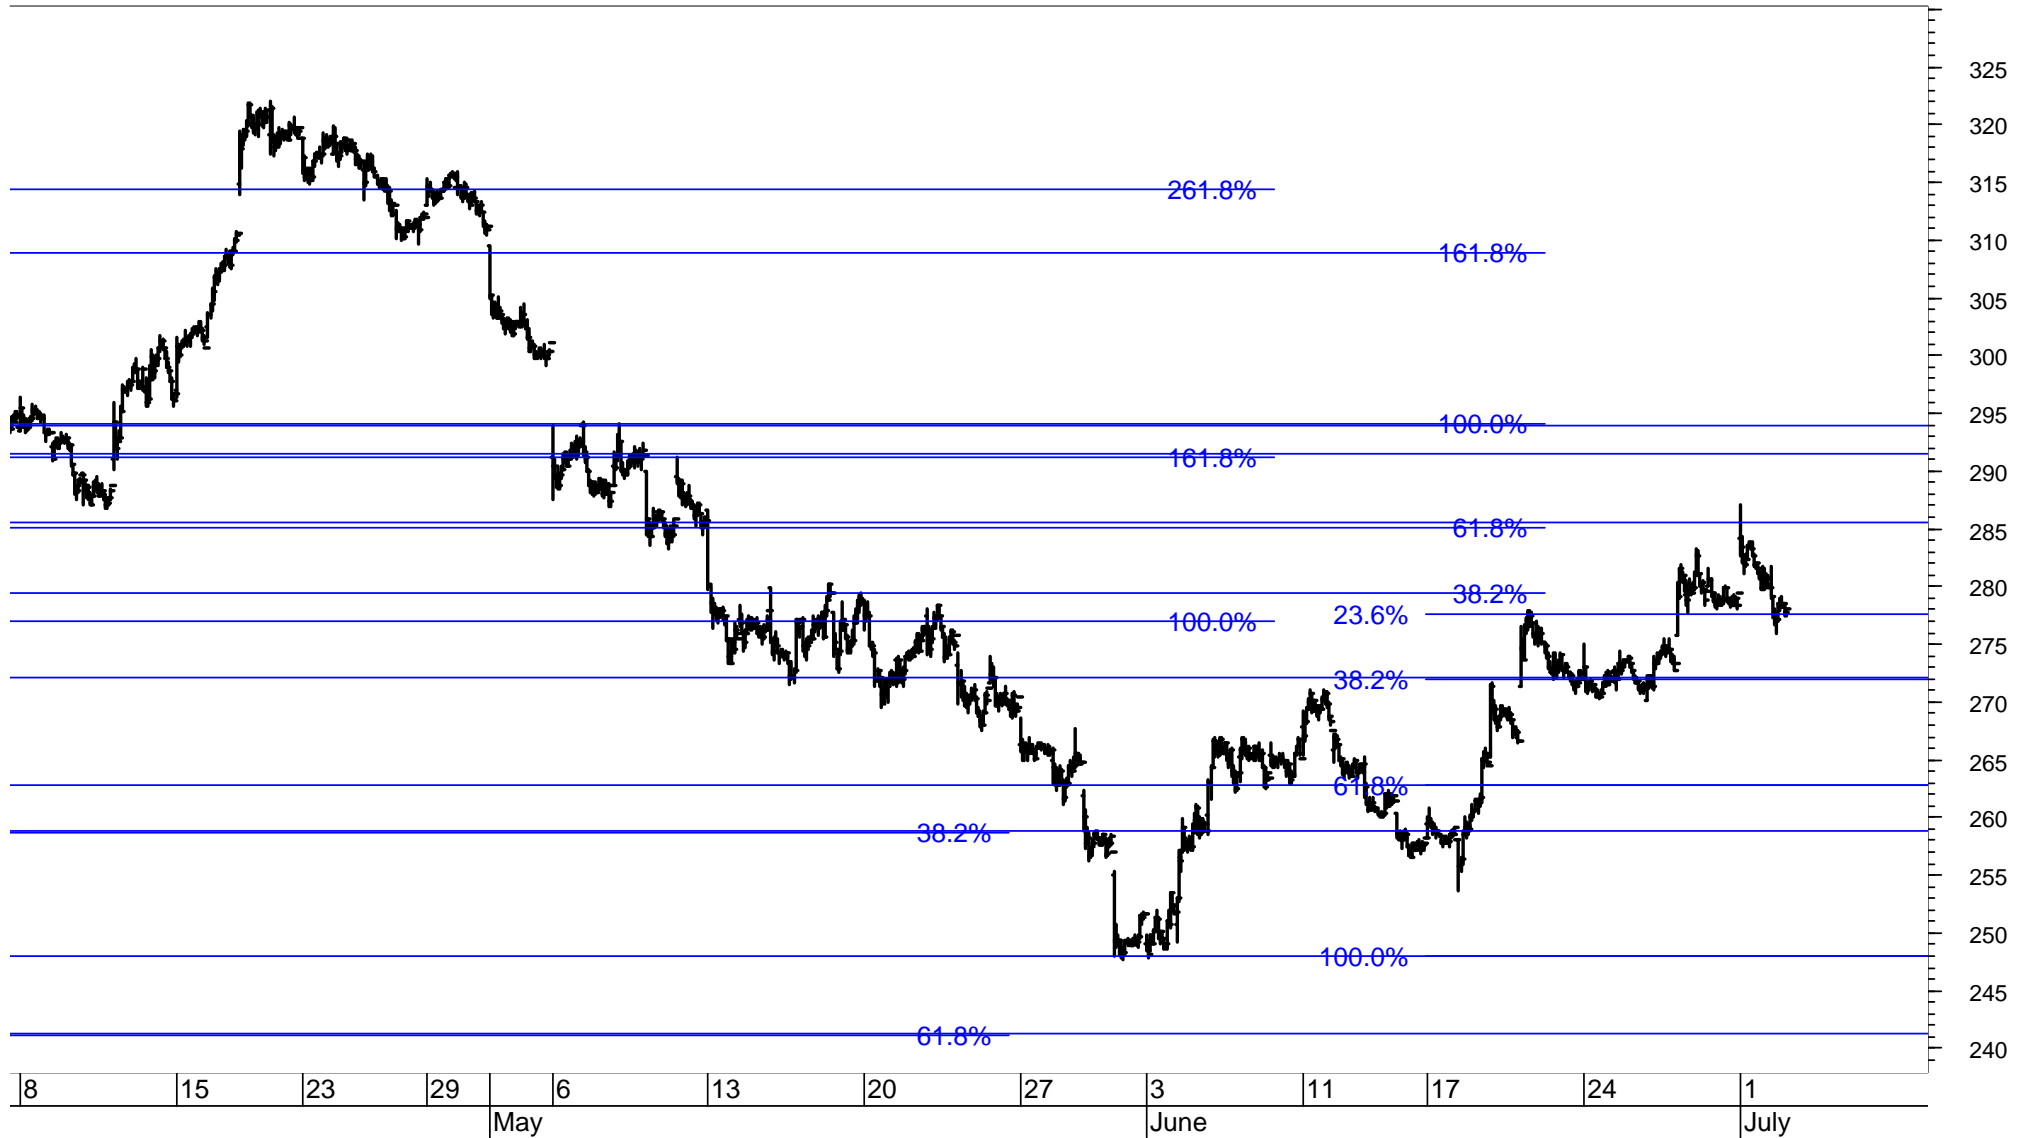

ROCHE GS

Roche is testing the high from February 2019. It will meet quite a few resistance levels if it rises to a new high. These levels are at 285 / 289, 295 and 303. There is no resistance thereafter until 320. Notice also that the resistance 295 / 303 is in the region of the previous all-time high at 296 from December 2014.

SWATCH GROUP

Swatch broke the resistance at 276 / 278 but failed to clear 287.
It entered another correction with supports at 275, 263 / 258 and 248 / 241.
I will stop the position at 271 and sidestep a possible decline to the low from May.
UHR will have to rise above 287 / 295 to signal a long-term upturn.

BAYER

Bayer must rise above 62 to signal 65.50, a break of which will signal 73 and with this signal, will also reverse the long-term downtrend from 122 in 2017.

NOVO NORDISK

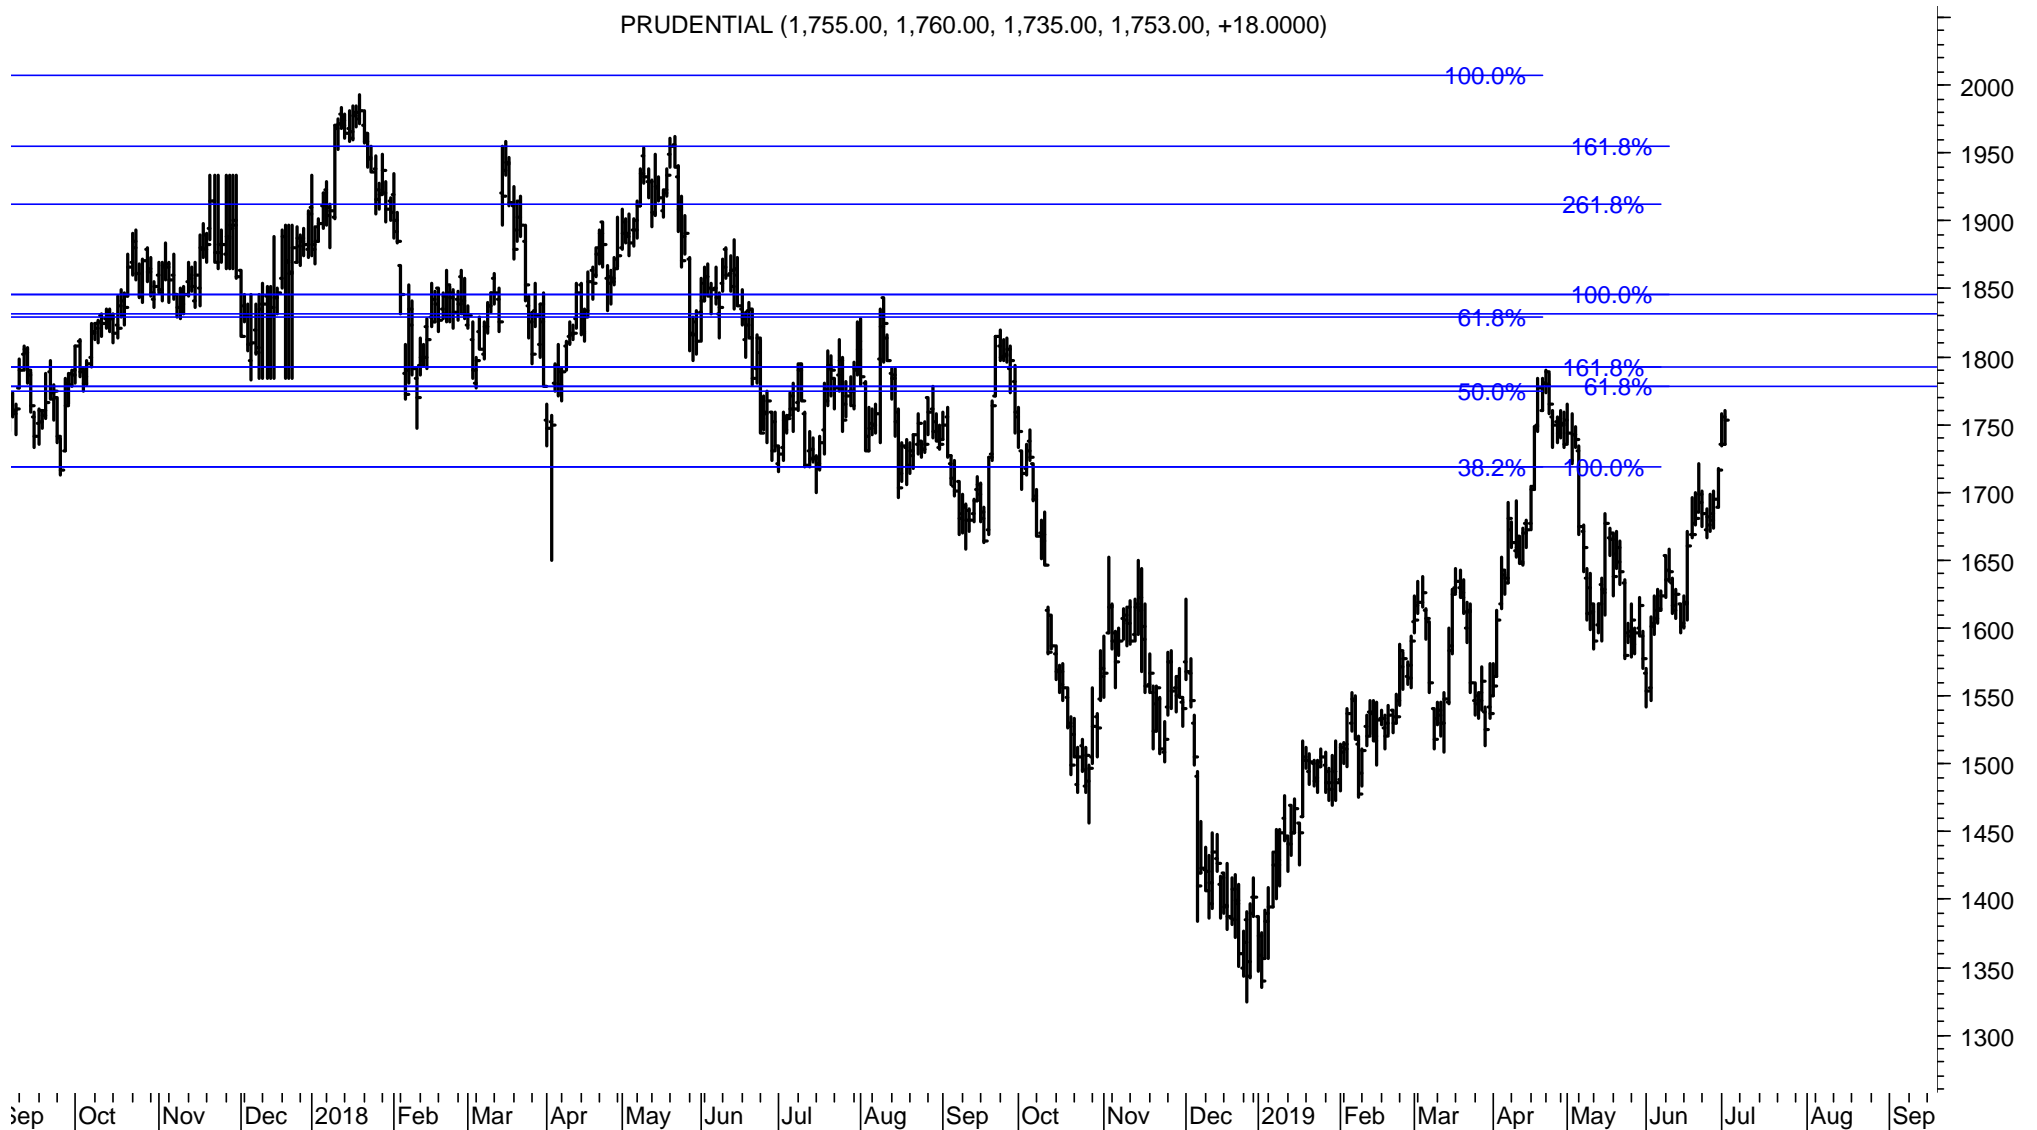

Novo Nordisk rose to the resistance cluster 340 to 350.
A break higher here will signal 365 and with the break of 365 will indicate further strength to 395 / 400 and possibly new highs thereafter.

PRUDENTIAL

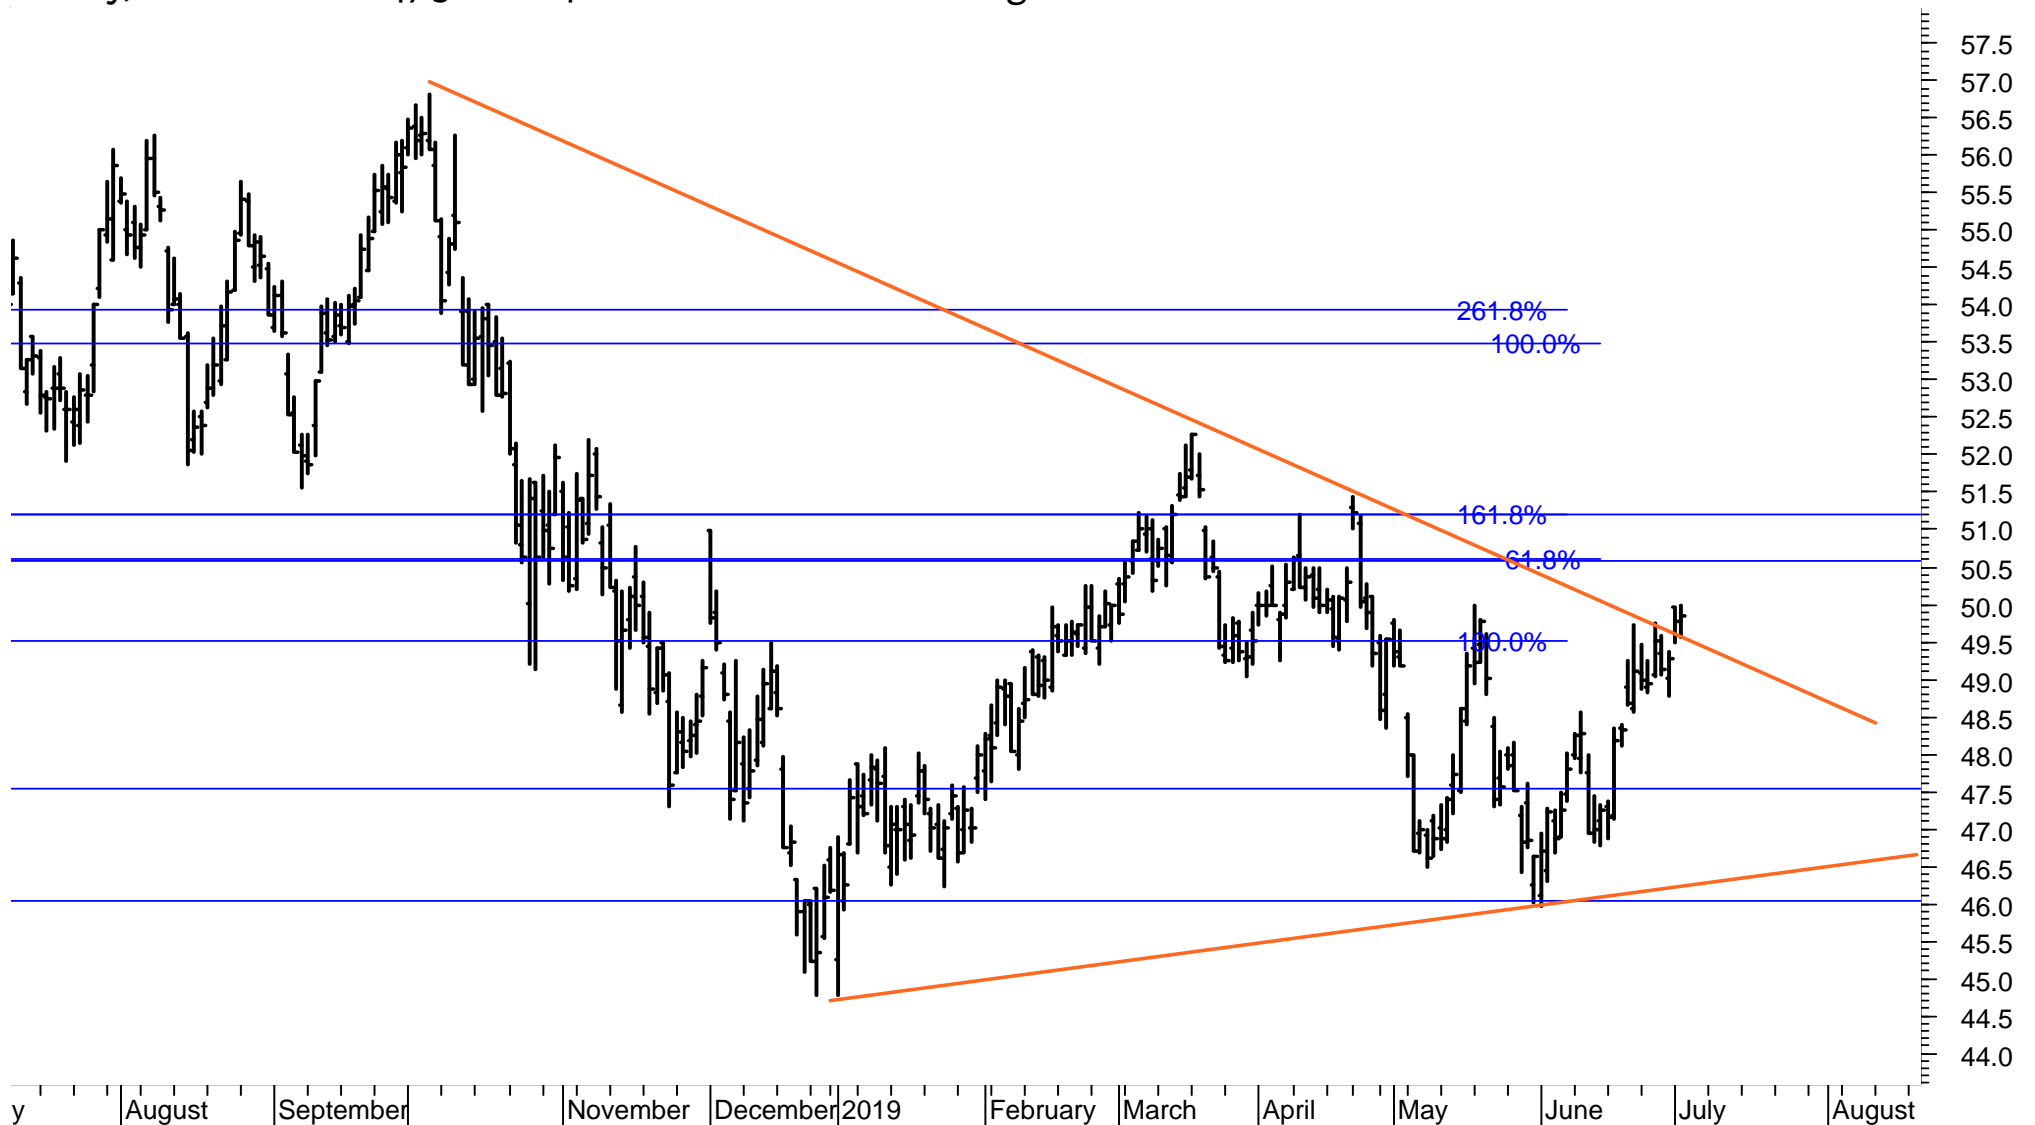

Prudential is close to testing the resistance at 1780 / 1800 and 1830 / 1850. A break of these levels will signal a rise to the previous high from January 2018 at 2000. With the decline of 2018 and the rise of this year, Prudential could signal new all-time highs in the region of 2300.

PRUDENTIAL (1,755.00, 1,760.00, 1,735.00, 1,753.00, +18.0000)

TOTAL

In 2018 it appeared that Total entered a long-term bear market. With the two lows of December 2017 and December 2018 it could have formed a huge head and shoulder top. However, if it can break the next resistance levels at 50.50 / 51.50 it could well rise to 54, a break of which could signal that the previous long-term uptrend could resume. Then, Total could rise to the previous all-time high from 2007 at 64. Clearly, a break below 47.50 and 46 would re-instate the long-term downtrend.

VOLKSWAGEN

Volkswagen must rise above 152 and 160 to signal a breakout of what could be a base-formation, which was formed from June 2018 to July 2019. A rise above 170 / 173 will add to the new long-term uptrend pressure.

ADOBE – hourly chart

I am watching Adobe closely because it is approaching a level where it will either accelerate the long-term uptrend or it will reach a major top. The chart below shows the Wedge formation, which Adobe has been forming since the low in March. It has reached the minimum price target, which is a new high at resistance 305. It could extend the uptrend to 312 to 325 and top out there. This would be in line with the S&P 500 Index reaching 3020 to 3120

AMAZON – daily chart

Amazon is testing a key resistance at 1925, a break of which would allow for higher price projection to 2080.

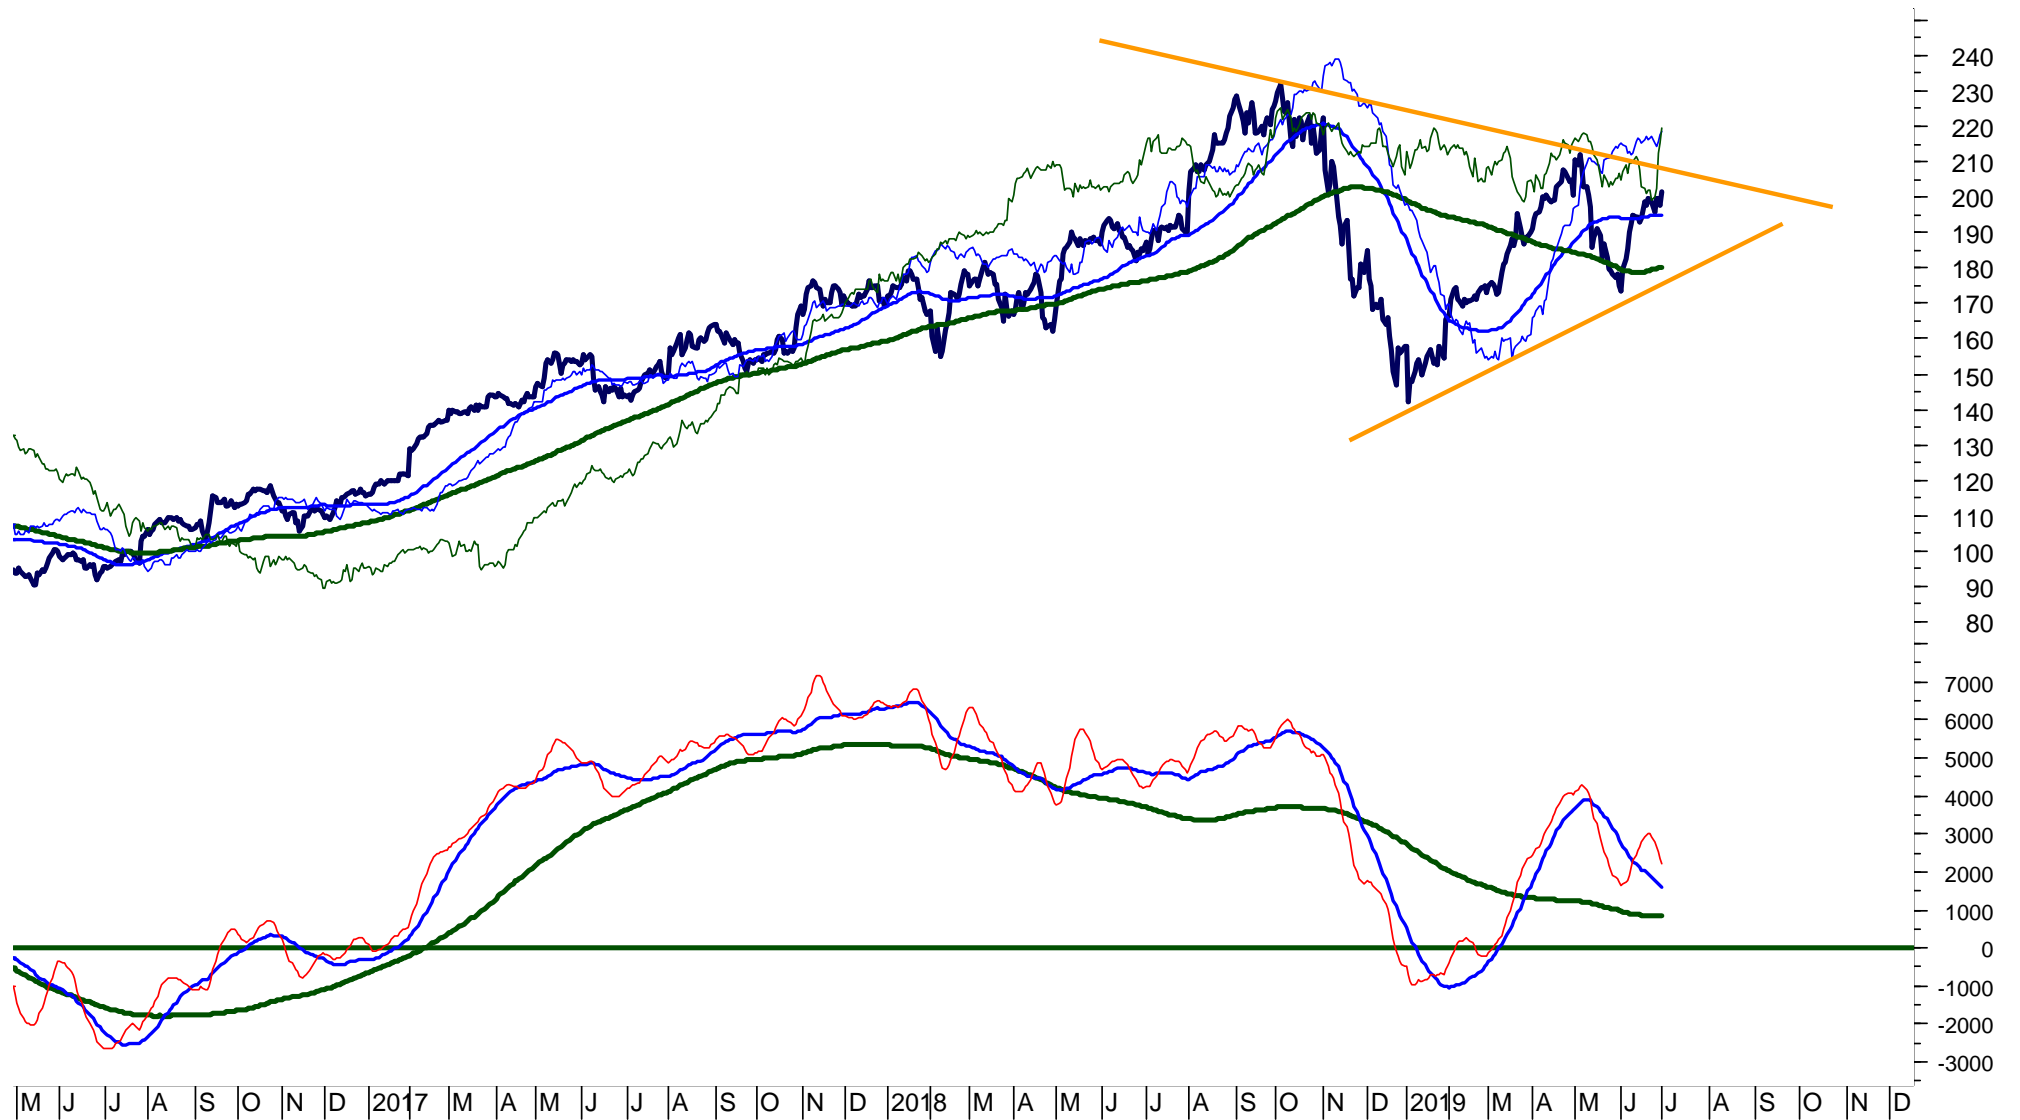

AMERICAN TOWER – daily chart

APPLE

Apple remains in a Triangle.
Resistance is 201, 215 and 243.
Major support is at 189 and 182.
